

K-STATE FOOTBALL

2020 MEDIA GUIDE

HEAD COACH CHRIS KLIEMAN

- Most wins by a first-year head coach in school history
- Second-most wins by a first-time FBS head coach in 2019
- Guided 15 Wildcats to All-Big 12 honors, including the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year (Joshua Youngblood)
- Led the Wildcats to their first-ever win at an SEC venue when they won at Mississippi State
- Kept the Governor's Cup in Manhattan following K-State's 11th-straight win over Kansas
- Saw the Wildcats place a school-record 32 players on Academic All-Big 12 teams, including a league-record 26 first-team members

POWERCAT STRENGTH

THE PROGRAM

K-State's strength and conditioning program, designed and oversaw by Director of Strength and Conditioning Chris Dawson along with his assistants – Darren Honeycutt, Corey Meredith, Evan Rapp and Joe Vaughn – combines weight training, plyometrics, stretching and flexibility exercises, running and proper nutrition to enhance each student-athlete's ability to compete.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER

The massive new Strength & Conditioning Center at the Vanier Family Football Complex is more than double the footprint of the previous building and features multi-level height ceilings, natural lighting and a built-in plyometric ramp.

PROPER NUTRITION

Maximizing on-field potential is more than just lifting weights and running; it's also ensuring that each student-athlete is benefiting from a nutritional and dietary program specific to their needs. Under the direction of K-State's first full-time sports nutritionist, Scott Trausch, K-State football players receive performance fueling strategies, team and individual nutrition education, hydration and body composition testing. Trausch works with the staff at the new Ahearn Fund Student-Athlete Performance Table in the West Stadium Center to coordinate nutritious meals for all K-State student-athletes.

2020 TEAM NOTES

K-STATE OPENS 125TH SEASON ON SEPTEMBER 12

- Following an impressive eight-win campaign that saw the Wildcats return to the bowl scene after a year hiatus, Kansas State opens its 125th season of football and second under head coach Chris Klieman on September 12 when the Wildcats host Arkansas State.
- The September 12 start date is the latest in the year that K-State will begin a season since 1992 (September 19 vs. Montana), while it is the first time in school history that K-State will play less than two non-conference games.
- The modified schedule includes five home games, the first time K-State has less than six home contests since 1984.

SIX-SPOT IMPROVEMENT

- A team that has generally out-performed preseason expectations did it again in 2019 as the Wildcats were predicted to finish ninth and ended the season in a tie for third place — a six-spot jump.
- In the nine Big 12 preseason polls during round robin play, last year's Wildcats became just the third squad to see a league-record six-spot improvement from the pre-season poll to the final standings.
- The other two occurrences was in 2014 when TCU went from seventh to a tie for first, while the 2011 Wildcats were predicted to finish eighth and concluded the year in second place.
- Since the Big 12 went to the round robin format in 2011, K-State averages a 2.1 spot jump from the preseason poll to the final standings. The other teams in the conference combined to average a 0.32 spot jump.

A WINNING TRADITION

- K-State ranks third in Big 12 wins since the league's inception in 1996, trailing only Oklahoma and Texas.
- The Wildcats also rank third in the conference in winning percentage since round-robin play began in 2011. They sit at .605 (49-32), trailing only Oklahoma (.827; 67-14) and Oklahoma State (.642 52-29).
- During that stretch, the Wildcats are 28-13 (.683) at home in Big 12 play and 21-19 (.525) on the road.
- In terms of postseason play, K-State is one of just 27 schools to advance to a bowl in nine of the last 10 years despite there being nearly 80 bowl teams per year.
- The Wildcats are one of four Big 12 teams to accomplish the feat, joining Baylor, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State.

GETTING THEIR FEET WET

- In the second year of the new redshirt rule that allowed players to compete in up to four games and still retain their redshirt, eight Wildcats were able to see time in 2019 but did not use a year of eligibility.
- Four players played in the maximum four games in running back Joe Ervin, defensive backs Will Jones II and Tyrone Lewis, and punter/kicker Ty Zentner.

FOOTBALL IS FOOTBALL

- Despite not having any FBS head coaching experience prior to the 2019 season, Chris Klieman showed that "football is football" is more than just a saying.
- Klieman tallied eight victories last year to set the school record by first-year head coaches, topping College Football Hall of Famer Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf (7-2-1 in 1934) and Ron Prince (7-6 in 2006).
- In fact, Klieman is one of the most successful first-time Power 5 head coaches over the last five years as his eight regular-season wins are tied for fifth over that span.

FIRST-TIME POWER 5 COACHES SINCE 2015

Regular-Season
Rk.	Coach, School	Record	Year
1.	Ryan Day, Ohio State	12-0	2019
2.	Lincoln Riley, Oklahoma	11-1	2017
3.	Jim McElwain, Florida	10-2	2015
4.	Clay Helton, USC	9-3	2016
75.	Chris Klieman, K-State	8-4	2019

Tied with four others

K-STATE TOPS IN NON-OFFENSIVE TDS

- K-State is the nation's best in non-offensive touchdowns over the last 21 seasons as it has 118 since 1999, 10 more than the next closest team.
- Since 1999, the Wildcats are averaging 5.6 non-offensive touchdowns per year, while the yearly average for the other 105 teams to play FBS football since 1999 is 2.7.
- Kansas State's average is boosted by the fact that it has at least five non-offensive touchdowns in seven of the last nine years, which included the 2019 season.
- The Wildcats had a nation-leading four kickoff-return touchdowns a season ago — including three from individual leader Joshua Youngblood — while Jonathan Alexander returned a fumble for a touchdown in the season opener against Nicholls and Phillip Brooks returned a punt 66 yards for a score in the Liberty Bowl.

2020 OFFENSIVE NOTES

RED ZONE SUCCESS

- Kansas State made the most of its opportunities in the red zone last season as it converted on a nation-leading 96.2% (50-of-52) of its trips.
- Its only two trips that did not result in points came within the first three games as the Wildcats enter 2020 on a current streak of 39 red-zone opportunities that have resulted in scores.
- The 39-straight scoring trips inside the red zone are the most by the Wildcats since at least 2003.

GOING THE DISTANCE

- Kansas State had three touchdown drives last season of at least 90 yards — 97 yards against Nicholls, 95 yards against TCU and 98 yards against Iowa State.
- The long drive against the Frogs was capped by a 3-yard run by Skylar Thompson with 2:45 left in a 24-17 victory.
- The 98-yard drive against the Cyclones was the longest by the Wildcats since also going 98 yards against both Texas Tech and UCLA in 2017.

EXPERIENCED SIGNAL CALLER

- K-State will benefit from having an experienced quarterback in 2020 as Skylar Thompson is back for his senior season with 27 starts under his belt.
- Thompson's 27 starts are the most by any Wildcat quarterback entering their senior season since at least 1989.
- In addition to team success, Thompson will also be chasing a few records during his final campaign in Manhattan as he ranks in the top 10 in nine career categories.

REBUILDING THE LINE

- Preseason practices will be a vital time for the Wildcats to start putting together pieces for the 2020 offensive line, one that does not return a single start from last season.
- It marks the first time since at least the 1989 season that the Wildcats will not return any starts from the previous season.
- However, guard Josh Rivas, who rotated in at guard last season, returns. Rivas earned First Team All-Big 12 honors from the Associated Press despite not starting a single game last year, but he did make a pair of starts as a redshirt freshman in 2018.

STABLE OF RUNNING BACKS

- Although the Wildcats return just 50% of its rushing yardage from a year ago — including two of their top three rushers — that doesn't mean the cupboard is bare heading into 2020.
- The Wildcats return four running backs that played a season ago, headlined by senior Harry Trotter. Trotter started three games last year, including a 92-yard output with a touchdown at Kansas.
- Additionally, Joe Ervin and Jacardia Wright combined for 45 rushes, 217 yards and two touchdowns as true freshmen, but both retained their redshirts by playing in four and three games, respectively.
- Also in the mix is senior Tyler Burns and redshirt freshmen Thomas Grayson and Clyde Price.
- Not only will K-State rely on the running backs, but quarterback Skylar Thompson has rushed for 1,045 career yards and 19 touchdowns, which includes 11 rushing scores a year ago.

2020 DEFENSIVE NOTES

KLANDERMAN TAKES OVER THE DEFENSE

- Kansas State's coaching staff stayed mainly in tact from the first year of the Chris Klieman era with the exception of safeties coach Joe Klanderman taking over the defense after Scottie Hazelton left for Michigan State.
- Klanderman, who has spent six seasons on Klieman's staffs at K-State and North Dakota State, is coordinating a defense for a second time in his career as he held the position at his alma mater, Minnesota State, from 2007 to 2013.
- Last season, Klanderman served as the safeties coach as he guided Denzel Goolsby to Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades, the first Wildcat safety to do so since 2016.

GETTING OFF THE FIELD

- The K-State defense excelled in terms of getting off the field on third down during last season as the Cats ranked second nationally in third down defense at 28%, just .7% behind national leader Wisconsin (27.3%).
- The Cats allowed only 42 third down conversions in 2019, which was the fewest in the nation and six ahead of the Badgers (42).
- The low conversion number was aided by the Wildcats not allowing a single one against Bowling Green — the first time since the 2003 Kansas game that K-State did not allow a third-down conversion — while it was the first time since 2011 that a Big 12 team did not give up one.
- In the regular-season finale against Iowa State, the Wildcats limited the Cyclones to just 1-of-13 on third-down conversions (7.7%), the lowest conversion rate that K-State had yielded in a Big 12 contest since the aforementioned Kansas game.
- Additionally, K-State was the last team in the nation to allow a fourth-down conversion when Texas converted one on November 9.

WELCOME BACK JUSTIN

- Senior Justin Hughes will look to reclaim his starting spot at linebacker following a season-ending injury during 2019 spring practices.
- Hughes, who earned a medical hardship for the 2019 season, started each of the final seven games in 2018 and was penciled in as a started at middle linebacker prior to his injury.
- Alongside Hughes will be his former high school teammate Elijah Sullivan, who has started 16 career games, including 13 a year ago.
- Like Hughes, Sullivan earned a medical hardship in 2018 after suffering an injury three games into the season.

WYATT'S COMING FOR YOU

- One of the top young defensive ends in the Big 12 the last two seasons will look to up his production as a junior as Wyatt Hubert is back after earning First Team All-Big 12 honors in 2019.
- Hubert also earned votes for the league's defensive player of the year and defensive lineman of the year awards last season.
- The Topeka, Kansas, native enters his junior campaign ranked 12th nationally among active players in career sacks per game (0.50).
- He totaled 11.5 sacks over his first two seasons of play, which tied for the second most in school history among players prior to their junior campaign.

"Stack good days on top of good days, and I promise you will be pleased with the process." That was the message throughout year one of the Chris Klieman era at Kansas State. And let's just say there were many good days stacked on top of one another.

Klieman, a proven winner with a championship history, was named the 35th head football coach in Kansas State history on December 10, 2018, and in year one at the helm of the K-State program, the Wildcats managed to win eight games, finish in a tie for third in the Big 12 after being picked ninth in the preseason, knocked off No. 5 Oklahoma at home for the first time since 1996, won at Mississippi State – the Wildcats first win in 11 tries inside an SEC stadium – kept the Governor's Cup in Manhattan following their 11th-straight win over rival Kansas and quickly got back to bowl eligibility after missing out the year prior. The eight wins by Klieman were the most in school history by a first-year coach and also ranked second nationally among first-year Power 5 head coaches in 2019, trailing only Ohio State's Ryan Day.

A total of 15 Wildcats earned All-Big 12 recognition in 2019, led by Special Teams Player of the Year Joshua Youngblood, who became the first true freshman in Big 12 history to be named Big 12 player of the year on offense, defense or special teams. His three kick returns for touchdowns led the nation in 2019 and sparked key Big 12 wins over Texas Tech and No. 23 Iowa State.

Klieman's work started on the field but didn't end there as the Wildcats placed a school-record 32 players on the Academic All-Big 12 teams, including a league-record 26 first-team members. Headlining the list was Adam Holtorf, who was the Big 12 Scholar Athlete of the Year, a First Team Academic All-American and candidate for the Campbell Trophy.

Prior to arriving at K-State, Klieman capped his five-year stint as head coach at North Dakota State by winning his fourth national championship in 2018. He tied Jim Tressel (Youngstown State) for the most FCS National Championships as a head coach, while he was a part of all seven of NDSU's national championships, the most in FCS history.

Klieman guided the 2018 Bison to a perfect 15-0 record, just the fifth team in FCS history to go undefeated and untied on the way to a national championship. North Dakota State also claimed that feat in 2013 when Klieman as the defensive coordinator.

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Klieman finished first in NDSU history in winning percentage (.920) and third in victories (69).

Klieman's accomplishments as the Bison head coach came despite losing 23 seniors and welcoming seven new assistant coaches prior to his first season at the helm in 2014. That year, the Bison went 15-1 and won the national championship before going 13-2 with another national championship in 2015, 12-2 with a semifinal appearance in 2016 and 14-1 with a third national title in 2017.

Klieman holds an 80-18 record in his seven seasons overall as head coach, including a 69-6 mark at North Dakota State and 8-5 at K-State. His 81.6 winning percentage as a head coach is the ninth-highest mark by an active coach among all NCAA Divisions at the end of the 2019 season, while it was the top mark among current FBS coaches.

Klieman's record is even more impressive considering 39 of his 69 wins at North Dakota State (56.5 percent) came over ranked opponents, while he had two wins in two tries over FBS competition – a 34-14 victory at Iowa State in his first game at the helm of NDSU and a 23-21 triumph at 11th-ranked Iowa in 2016. His teams were also stellar in protecting home field as evidenced by his 43-3 home record at NDSU, which includes winning each of his last 19 games at the FargoDome.

The Bison won the Missouri Valley Football Conference each of his five years as head coach and put together a collective 36-4 (90.0 percent) record against conference foes during that time. He was named the Bruce Craddock MVFC Coach of the Year in 2017, while he was the 2014 Rawlings Football/American Football Monthly FCS Coach of the Year and the 2018 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year.

Klieman's teams were a model of success at NDSU, ranking highly in many of the key statistical categories throughout his tenure. The Bison scoring offense ranked in the top 10 each of his final three seasons in Fargo, including a 41.5-points-per-game mark to rank sixth in 2018, and their total offense mark ranked in the top 20 the final two years, including a 271.7-yard mark in 2018 to rank 14th in the nation.

Klieman, who came up through the coaching ranks on defense, has always produced on that side of the ball as NDSU finished his final season ranked in the top 15 in red zone defense (1st), scoring defense (3rd) and total defense (5th). The Bison ranked in the top six in scoring and total defense in four of his five seasons as head coach, including a No. 1 national ranking in total defense in 2017 (237.4). Elevated from defensive coordinator to head coach at NDSU on December 15, 2013, Klieman's defensive units during his two-year run as coordinator each included top-10 rankings in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and passing defense. Highlighting that run were No. 1 rankings in scoring defense in both 2012 and 2013, and total defense in 2012, the latter when he was named the Football Scoop FCS Coordinator of the Year. NDSU also led the nation in scoring defense when he was the defensive backs coach in 2011.

Klieman began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Northern Iowa, in 1991 and 1992 before being promoted to an assistant coach in 1993. He went on to Western Illinois as an assistant coach from 1994 to 1996 before serving as a graduate assistant at Kansas in 1997 and an assistant coach at Missouri State in 1999.

Klieman then moved on to Division III Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, where he was the defensive coordinator from 2002 to 2004 before taking over as head coach for the 2005 season. He returned to Northern Iowa in 2006 as an assistant coach before being elevated to defensive coordinator for the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Klieman was a three-time All-Gateway Conference defensive back at Northern Iowa and four-year letterwinner from 1986-90. He graduated from UNI in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in health education and a master's degree in physical education in 1992.

Klieman and his wife, Rhonda, are parents of two sons, Devin and Colby, and one daughter, Haley.

Van Malone, who has several ties to the Big 12 and was a successful defensive back in both college and the NFL, enters his second season coaching the cornerbacks at Kansas State in 2020. Malone added the titles of assistant head coach and passing game coordinator prior to his second campaign in Manhattan.

In his first season in Manhattan, Malone helped tutor a defense that ranked second in the Big 12 by allowing 21.4 points per game, K-State's best mark since 2003. Thanks in part to Malone's work in the back end, Kansas State ranked second in the nation in third down defense at 28.0% - its best mark since at least 2003 - and second in the Big 12 in passing yards per game (202.9 yards per game) - its best finish in five years.

Malone tutored AJ Parker, who picked up Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades in 2019 despite missing the final five games of the year due to injury. At the time of his injury, Parker was tied for second in the Big 12 and 17th nationally in interceptions.

Malone came to Manhattan after one year working as a defensive quality control coach at Mississippi State, helping the Bulldogs earn an 8-4 record and a No. 1 national ranking in scoring defense and a No. 3 mark in total defense.

Prior to Mississippi State, Malone was the defensive coordinator at SMU for three years, including the 2017 season when he was named the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) National FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. That year, he tutored three All-AAC performers, including Justin Lawler, who was the conference's leader in sacks.

Malone coached Lawler to his first All-AAC honor in 2016, a year he was joined on the list by cornerback Horace Richardson and safety Darrin Millines. Malone's 2016 defense was statistically one of the 10 most improved in college football. The Mustangs ranked seventh nationally in interceptions per game and forced 26 turnovers overall. In fact, two of Malone's three defenses finished in the top 20 in defensive turnovers.

Malone went to SMU after a three-year stint at Oklahoma State where he coached the Cowboys' safeties in 2012 before switching to cornerbacks for the next two seasons. Under Malone's direct guidance, Justin Gilbert became Oklahoma State's first finalist for the Thorpe Award in 2013, a year he ranked fifth nationally with six interceptions and had two pick-sixes.

With Malone on staff, the Cowboys ranked seventh nationally with 30 turnovers forced during the 2013 regular season, with 10 of those turnovers involving his cornerbacks. The Cowboys entered the Cotton Bowl ranked in the top 25 nationally in eight categories, including top-10 marks in passes intercepted (fourth), red zone defense (fifth), turnovers gained (seventh), third-down defense (seventh) and pass efficiency defense (ninth).

Malone's move to Stillwater came after two years serving as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa. In 2010, the Golden Hurricane defense ranked first nationally in interceptions with 24, while Tulsa was the NCAA's second-ranked team for turnover margin and third for turnovers gained.

Malone coached defensive backs at North Texas during the 2005 season and also assisted coaching the special teams. Before that, Malone served as the cornerback coach and worked with the special teams at Western Michigan in 2004.

In 2003, Malone served an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Detroit Lions and also worked with wide receivers at North Dakota State.

Malone played five seasons in the NFL after being drafted in the second round by the Detroit Lions in 1994. He played in every game as a rookie and was a standout special teams player, earning Special Teams Player of the Week on six different occasions. His special teams play earned him a nomination for the Pro Bowl in 1994 and 1995, while the Lions reached the playoffs in both of those seasons.

In 1996, Malone started every game, was named the special teams captain and was awarded a game ball three times.

Malone began coaching in the high school ranks at his alma mater, Waltrip, from 1999-2002. He also coached at Conroe from 2002-03. He earned the Houston High School Coaches Association "Assistant Coach of the Year" in 2000 and was also honored by the Houston Police Department with the "Lifesaver of the Year" Award.

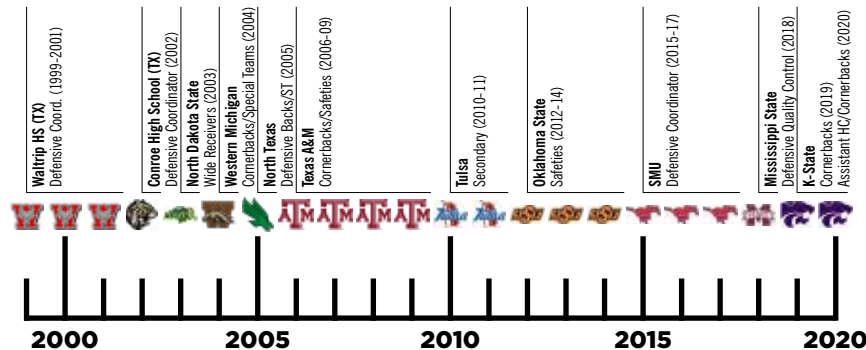

Malone was a four-year letterman (1990-93) at Texas, earning All-America honors and All-SWC accolades as a defensive back his senior season. As a freshman in 1990, Malone earned Sporting News Freshman All-America honors as Texas won the Southwest Conference.

A native of Houston who majored in education/sports management while at Texas, Malone completed his undergraduate work through the NFL's degree completion program and earned his degree in social science from the University of Houston in 2002.

Malone and his wife, Nedra, have three sons, Van, Vaughn and Vincent. Vaughn is a redshirt freshman cornerback for the Wildcats.

A six-year member of Chris Klieman's staff, Joe Klanderman enters his second season at Kansas State in 2020 but his first as the defensive coordinator. Klanderman will continue to coach the safeties, a position he tutored in 2019.

In just his first year in Manhattan, Klanderman helped the Wildcats rank first in the nation in third down defense at 28.0%, which was the best by K-State since at least 2003. The Wildcats also ranked 15th nationally in first down defense (224) and put together a No. 2 ranking in the Big 12 in pass defense (202.9 yards per game), their best ranking in the conference since in five seasons. Thanks in part to Klanderman's tutelage of the back end of the defense, K-State allowed just 21.4 points per game, their best mark since 2003. Under Klanderman's guidance, Denzel Goolsby earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honors, the first Wildcat safety to do so since 2016.

Klanderman came to Manhattan from North Dakota State after helping the Bison win four national titles in his five seasons on staff, which included a perfect 15-0 record in 2018. The NDSU defense was a major factor in its undefeated run as the Bison ranked first nationally with 23 interceptions, including six by safety Robbie Grimsley and five by safety James Hendricks.

Overall, the Bison ranked in the top five in scoring defense each of his five years on staff, including a No. 2 ranking in 2017 (11.6 points per game) and No. 3 spot in 2018 (12.6). His secondary has also helped NDSU rank in the top 11 in passing yards allowed in four of the five years, with a No. 3 national ranking in 2017 (147.9 yards per game).

Thanks to the nation-leading 23 picks in 2018, the Bison totaled 100 interceptions during Klanderman's five years on staff, helping NDSU finish third in the country in 2017 and fifth in both 2014 and 2016.

During his time at NDSU, Klanderman coached a trio of All-America safeties in Grimsley, Colten Heagle and Tre Dempsey, in addition to multiple all-conference performers. Heagle finished his career ranked first in Bison history with 191 solo tackles, while Grimsley was second with 159.

Klanderman went to North Dakota State after a 12-year coaching stint at his alma mater, Minnesota State. While in Mankato, Klanderman served as the defensive line coach from 2002 to 2004 before moving to the secondary in 2005. He then took over the reins as defensive coordinator from 2007 to 2013 while coaching the linebackers.

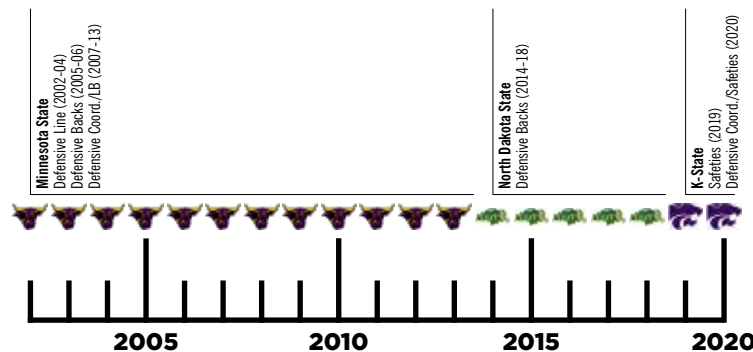

During his time at Minnesota State, Klanderman helped tutor 26 first team all-conference honorees and 10 All-Americans. He helped five Maverick squads earn at least nine wins, including the 2012 and 2013 seasons in which MSU went a combined 24-2.

Klanderman was a three-year starter on the defensive line for the Mavericks from 1997 to 2001, serving as a starter for three of those seasons. A product of Hammond, Wisconsin, Klanderman was named an Academic All-Region honoree following his senior season in 2001.

A 2001 graduate from Minnesota State with a degree in social studies, Klanderman also obtained his master's degree in sports administration from MSU in 2004.

Klanderman and his wife, Amanda, are the parents of four children – Elle, Corryn, Jarrett and James.

Courtney Messingham, a 30-year coaching veteran who has served as a coordinator at multiple stops in addition to coaching virtually every offensive position, enters his second season as Kansas State's offensive coordinator in 2020. In addition to running the offense, Messingham also coaches the Wildcat fullbacks and tight ends.

The Wildcats took to Messingham's offense quickly in his first year as K-State led the nation in red zone offense (96.2%), ranked ninth in the country and first in the Big 12 in time of possession (33:27), and 10th nationally in passes intercepted (5). The red-zone mark was the best by the Wildcats since at least 2001 and the best by a Big 12 team since at least 2004, while their five interceptions tied for the fewest in school history in a 13-game season.

In his first game coordinating the Wildcat offense, K-State put together a 573-yard effort against Nicholls – tied for the seventh most in a single game in school history – while K-State opened the season with a pair of 500-yard outputs for the first time in school history.

Eight Wildcats on offense picked up all-conference honors in 2019 – the most since 2012 – which included first-team fullback Nick Lenners. Quarterback Skylar Thompson was the first Wildcat signal caller to earn the nod from the league's coaches since 2014, as he finished the year ranked 10th in school history in single-season completions (177) and touchdowns responsible for (23).

Messingham came to Manhattan after an ultra-successful two-year stint as offensive coordinator and running backs coach at North Dakota State under head coach Chris Klieman. Messingham's offense reset the NDSU and Missouri Valley Conference record book in 2018, a year that the Bison went 15-0 and won its FCS-record seventh national championship. The Bison set the school and conference marks for points scored (622), touchdowns scored (80), rushing offense (4,293), total offense (7,076) and rushing touchdowns (54). Additionally, the 2018 Bison set a school record for yards per play (7.37) and ranked second in yards per rush (6.41).

NDSU ranked in the top-10 in the nation in scoring offense during both of Messingham's seasons at the controls, going for 41.5 points per game in 2018 and 38.7 points per game in 2017, helping the Bison earn a combined 29-1 record and two national championships. North Dakota State's rushing offense also ranked in the top 10 each of Messingham's two seasons at the helm by averaging 286.2 yards in 2018 to rank seventh and 272.2 yards per game in 2017 to rank fourth. The Bison were also extremely efficient when they did throw, ranking fourth (163.15) and second (169.71) in passing efficiency in 2017 and 2018, respectively.

Messingham tutored a three-headed monster at running back in 2018 in Bruce Anderson, Lance Dunn and Ty Brooks as the trio averaged 169.4 yards per game and totaled 26 touchdowns. In 2017,

Anderson was a Second Team FCS All-American and All-Missouri Valley Conference player by ranking sixth in the nation with 1,216 yards to go along with 12 touchdowns.

Messingham went to NDSU from Montana State, where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2016. Prior to that, Messingham was the offensive and special teams quality control coach at Indiana in 2014 and 2015.

His stint in Manhattan is his second tour of duty in the Big 12 as Messingham spent five seasons at Iowa State, including his final two as the offensive coordinator. He coached the tight ends in 2009 and 2010 before switching to wide receivers in 2011. Messingham took control of the Cyclone offense in 2012 and 2013, helping ISU set a school record for touchdown passes the first year (28), while the Cyclones also ranked in the top five that season in passing yards, first downs, total offense, total touchdowns and points.

Messingham received his first coaching job as a graduate assistant at St. Ambrose (Iowa) in 1990 before being promoted to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the 1991 and 1992 seasons. He then moved to Iowa Lakes Community College for the same role in 1993 and 1994 before working at Truman State from 1995 to 1998, the first two years being the running backs and tight ends coach before taking over the coordinator role the final two seasons. In 1996, Messingham coached running back Jarrett Anderson to the Harlon Hill Award as the nation's best NCAA Division II player.

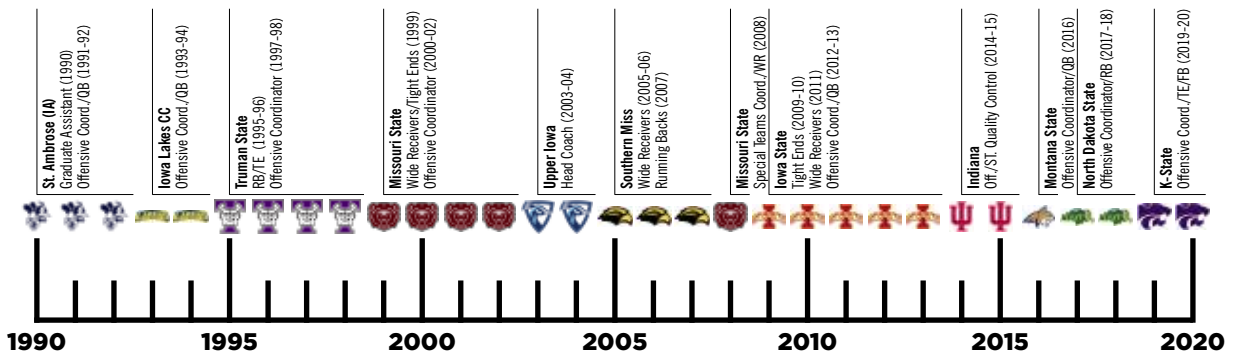

A teammate of Klieman at Northern Iowa from 1986 to 1989, the duo first reunited in the coaching profession at Missouri State in 1999 when Messingham was the wide receivers and tight ends coach. Following that season, Messingham took over as offensive coordinator from 2000 to 2002. He returned to Springfield in 2008 to serve as Missouri State's special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach.

After a two-year stint as head coach at Upper Iowa in 2003 and 2004 while the Peacocks were reclassifying to Division II, Messingham took his first FBS job at Southern Miss from 2005 to 2007, the first two as wide receivers coach before tutoring the running backs.

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Messingham graduated from UNI with a bachelor's degree in manufacturing and mechanical design in 1990 and earned a master's degree in business administration from St. Ambrose in 1992. He and his wife, Carol, have one daughter, Taylor.

* As a player

A 25-year coaching veteran with ties to the state of Kansas, Brian Anderson is in his second season as K-State's running backs coach in 2020.

Anderson tutored a running back group in 2019 that helped the Wildcats finish fourth in the Big 12 in rushing offense (178.0 yards per game) and third in the league in rushing touchdowns (29). Due to its work on the ground, K-State led the nation in red-zone offense at 96.2% — the best mark by the Wildcats since at least 2001 and the best by a Big 12 team since at least 2004. K-State also ranked ninth in the nation in time of possession at 33:27, the highest by a Wildcat team since 2012.

Not only did Anderson have to teach the running back group a new offense, he had to do so with zero scholarship running backs on the roster when he arrived. However, Anderson and the Wildcats did benefit from a pair of graduate transfers in James Gilbert and Jordon Brown, who finished first and third on the team in rushing, respectively. Under Anderson, Gilbert rushed for 737 yards and six touchdowns en route to Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades.

Anderson came to Manhattan from Illinois State, where he coached the wide receivers in 2018. He made an impact during his one season in Normal, coaching a receiving group that combined for 133 receptions for 1,913 and 15 touchdowns. Most of those figures were the production of Spencer Schnell, a First Team All-Missouri Valley Conference performer who capped off his career by leading the league in receptions with 65 and ranking second with 872 receiving yards.

Anderson also tutored Andrew Edgar, a Freshman All-American who set an Illinois State freshman record with 746 yards on 44 receptions to go along with four touchdowns. Edgar was also named to the MVFC All-Newcomer team.

A bulk of Anderson's career has been with under head coach Jerry Kill, who served as an Associate Athletics Director at K-State in 2016. Anderson was on Kill's staff at Southern Illinois from 2001-07 and Northern Illinois from 2008-10 before joining him in Minnesota for the 2011-16 seasons.

At Minnesota, Anderson tutored the running backs from 2011 to 2013. During his final season at the position, Anderson helped produce the Gophers' first 1,000-yard running back in eight years when David Cobb rushed for 1,202 yards. In 2012, Anderson coached Donnell Kirkwood, who churned out 926 yards during his sophomore campaign.

Minnesota receivers flourished under Anderson, especially in 2015. Sixteen different Gophers, seven of them receivers, combined to catch 251 passes for 2,793 yards and 15 touchdowns. The 251 receptions were the most by a Minnesota team since 2008. Gopher receivers combined to catch 158 passes (62.9 percent) for 1,794 yards with 12 touchdowns.

Anderson coached senior KJ Maye to a record-breaking season in 2015. Maye, who started his Minnesota career as a running back, caught 73 passes for 773 yards and five touchdowns on his way to All-Big Ten accolades. His 73 receptions ranked second all-time and were the most ever for a senior.

Prior to his stint in Minneapolis, Anderson coached tight ends at Northern Illinois for three years after tutoring the wide receivers and kick returners at Southern Illinois the previous seven seasons.

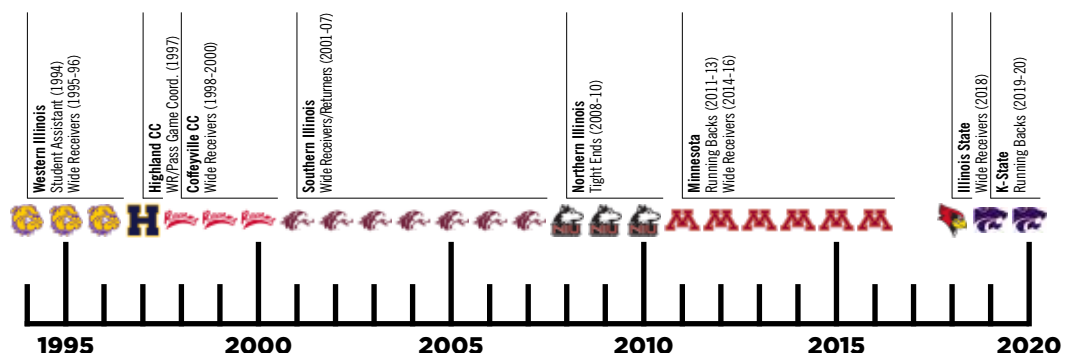

Anderson's ties to the state of Kansas go back to the late 1990s when he coached at Coffeyville Community College from 1997-2000, where three of his student-athletes went on to play in the NFL. He also coached two seasons at Highland Community College.

Anderson began his coaching career at Western Illinois, serving as a student assistant in 1994, before coaching wide receivers in 1995-96.

Anderson's playing career began at Ellsworth Community College in Iowa Falls, Iowa. At Ellsworth, Anderson took part in the 1988 Royal Crown Cola Bowl and the 1989 Mid-American Bowl, that season's NJCAA national championship game. He then moved on to Western Illinois, where he lettered as a wide receiver in 1991 and 1992.

Anderson holds a bachelor's degree from Western Illinois, and he and his wife, Kerri, have a daughter, Annabelle.

A 2012 Heisman Trophy finalist and one of the greatest quarterbacks to ever don a Kansas State uniform, Collin Klein enters his fourth season as the quarterbacks coach in 2020.

In 2019, Klein was able to help implement a new offense and work with quarterback Skylar Thompson as the Wildcats were one of the top offensive units in the Big 12. Under Klein's guidance, Thompson earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades as he finished 10th in K-State history in single-season completions (177) and touchdowns responsible for (23). Taking a page out of Klein's playbook when he was a player, Thompson rushed for 11 touchdowns on the year to tie for eighth nationally among quarterbacks, including seven over a two-game stretch in wins over No. 5 Oklahoma and Kansas.

Thanks in part to Klein's teachings, the Wildcats led the nation in red zone offense (96.2%), ranked ninth in the country and first in the Big 12 in time of possession (33:27), and 10th nationally in fewest passes intercepted (5). K-State's red-zone percentage was its best since at least 2001 and the best by a Big 12 team since at least 2004, while the five picks tied for the fewest in school history in a 13-game season.

Under Klein, Thompson has been just the fourth player in school history to throw for 4,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a career — but the first to do so prior to his senior year — but he can become the second to throw for 5,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards. Thompson also enters his senior campaign ranked in the top 10 in 10 different categories, including top-five marks in completion percentage (4th; 59.52%) and rushing yards by a quarterback (5th; 1,045).

In just his first season as a K-State assistant coach in 2017, Klein helped the Wildcats earn their eighth-straight bowl berth despite being forced the start three different quarterbacks due to injury. K-State finished the year ranked 13th in the nation in passing yards per completion (14.48), while the Wildcats' 141.7 passing efficiency mark ranked eighth in school history.

Under Klein's tutelage, Jesse Ertz put together the fifth-best pass efficiency mark in a season (150.22) while his 129.5 career mark ranked ninth in K-State history. He also set the school record for lowest interception percentage (1.92).

Klein also helped develop Thompson — then a redshirt freshman — who started the final four games of the season and passed for 689 yards, the fourth most by a freshman in school history. Thompson's season was highlighted by a Wildcat victory at 10th-ranked Oklahoma State where he threw for 204 yards and three touchdowns on 10-of-13 aim, good for a 274.89 pass efficiency rating to rank fifth in school history.

Additionally, Alex Delton helped lead the Wildcats to victories against Kansas and Texas Tech in 2017, while he came off the bench against UCLA in the Cactus Bowl to rush for 158 yards and three touchdowns to earn Offensive MVP honors.

Klein was the co-offensive coordinator in 2018, and for a the second-straight year he was forced to play multiple quarterbacks due to injury. A majority of the starts in 2018 went to Thompson, who threw for 1,391 yards and nine touchdowns in 10 starts.

Klein entered the coaching profession as an assistant director of recruiting operations and quality control coach at K-State in 2014 before taking over as an offensive graduate assistant the following year. He helped guide Jake Waters to a school-record 3,501 passing yards in 2014 and assisted Joe Hubener and Kody Cook in leading the Wildcats to a bowl in 2015 by splitting time at quarterback.

The 2012 Johnny Unitas Award winner, Klein finished his Wildcat career ranking in the school's top 10 in 34 different game, season and career record categories. He was the first quarterback from a Power 5 school since 1998 to rush for at least 20 touchdowns and pass for 10 scores in consecutive seasons by doing so in 2011 and 2012.

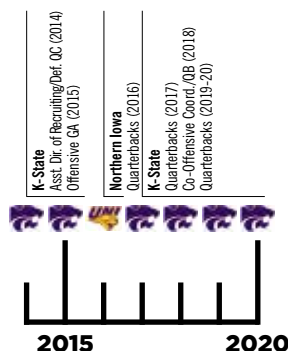

Klein led the Wildcats to a combined 21-5 record as the starting quarterback in 2011 and 2012, which culminated with a No. 1 national ranking, Big 12 Championship and Fiesta Bowl berth in 2012.

Klein's first job as an assistant coach came when he served as the quarterbacks coach at Northern Iowa in 2016. During his lone season in Cedar Falls, Klein tutored a pair of quarterbacks that split reps in Eli Dunne and Aaron Bailey.

Dunne finished the year throwing for 1,175 yards and seven touchdowns, which was highlighted by a 418-yard, two-touchdown outing against Missouri State en route to FCS National Performer of the Week honors. Bailey totaled 882 yards and six touchdowns through the air, while he rushed for six scores.

Klein obtained his undergraduate degree from K-State in December 2011 in business financial services and controllershhip. He is married to the former Shalin Spani, a former Wildcat women's basketball player. The couple has two sons, Beric and Rhett.

A young coach with ties to the Big 12, Jason Ray is in his second season as the wide receivers coach at Kansas State in 2020.

Ray's receivers helped the 2019 Wildcats finish first in the nation in red zone offense (96.2%), rank ninth in the country and first in the Big 12 in time of possession (33:27) and 10th nationally in passes intercepted (5). The red-zone figure was the best by the Wildcats since at least 2001 and the best by a Big 12 team since at least 2004.

Ray helped complete the career of walk-on-turned-starter Dalton Schoen, who earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades as a senior and finished his career ranked seventh in school history in yards per reception (17.05) and 15th in total receiver yards (1,569). Under Ray, Schoen helped bring along a young receiver corps as five of the top seven Wildcat receivers were either freshmen or sophomores.

Ray also assisted in the return game as he helped tutor Joshua Youngblood to multiple All-America honors and the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year award after returning a nation-leading three kickoffs for touchdowns. Youngblood was the first Wildcat true freshman to be named either First or Second Team All-American since Tyler Lockett in 2011, while he was the first true freshman in Big 12 history to earn the conference's top honor on either offense, defense or special teams.

Ray came to Manhattan after serving one season at North Dakota State under head coach Chris Klieman. He helped the Bison go 15-0 with a national championship in 2018 thanks in part to an offense that shattered many NDSU and Missouri Valley Conference records, including points scored (622), touchdowns scored (80) and total offense (7,076). Additionally, the 2018 Bison ranked fourth in school history in both passing yards (2,783) and passing touchdowns (28).

On a national scale in 2018, NDSU ranked sixth in scoring offense (41.5 points per game), 10th in passing yards per completion (15.46), second in passing efficiency (169.71) and 14th in total offense (471.7 yards per game).

Ray coached up Darrius Shepherd to All-Missouri Valley Conference honors in 2018 as he led the team with 62 receptions for 1,065 yards and nine touchdowns, including a 125-yard, two-touchdown performance in the national championship to earn Most Outstanding Player honors. Under Ray, Shepherd finished his senior campaign third in school history in receiving yards, tied for third in touchdowns and fourth in receptions. Shepherd also finished second in NDSU history in career receiving yards (2,841) and receptions (188), and sixth in touchdowns (20).

Ray spent the previous three seasons at fellow Missouri Valley Conference schools, coaching wide receivers at Missouri State (2016-17) and Northern Iowa (2015). Ray coached Malik Earl at MSU to a pair of all-conference honors as a junior and senior, while he also tutored Zac Hoover to all-conference honors in 2017.

Prior to joining UNI, Ray spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State mentoring the Cowboys' receivers and return specialists. Oklahoma State turned in one of the strongest offensive performances in school history in 2013, ranking 14th nationally in scoring and registering the No. 5 passing offense in program history en route to a berth in the Cotton Bowl.

Ray guided Josh Stewart — who set a Big 12 record with a 95-yard punt return for a touchdown — to Second Team All-Big 12 honors, while he ranked fourth nationally in punt-return average (18.2 yards per return). Additionally, Justin Gilbert led the conference in kickoff return average (26.6 yards per return).

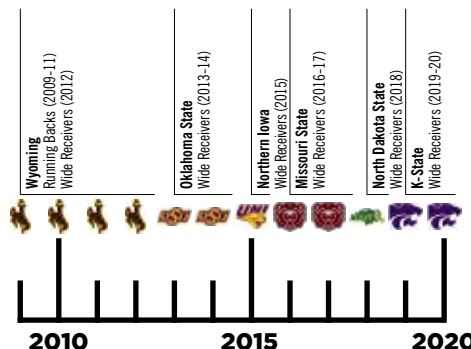

Ray's first coaching job came at Wyoming from 2009 to 2012, helping lead the Cowboys to a pair of bowl games, including a win in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl. He coached the running backs, overseeing the development of All-Mountain West performer Alvester Alexander, who capped his career with 2,127 yards and 27 touchdowns to rank among the top 10 in school history in both categories.

Ray was a three-year letterwinner as a wide receiver at Missouri and was a part of four bowl teams, which included wins in the Independence Bowl (2005) and Cotton Bowl (2007). He was a team captain for the 2007 season when the Tigers won a school-record 12 games, advanced to the Big 12 Championship game and were ranked No. 1 in the nation late in the season, the school's first top ranking in 47 years.

Ray, who was president of Mizzou's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, graduated with a degree in marketing in 2007. He then worked as a development associate for the Tiger Scholarship Fund where he assisted with prospective donor solicitation, coordinated special events and projects, and cultivated stewardship toward his alma mater's primary athletics fundraising operation.

Ray and his wife, Courtney, are parents of one daughter, Hensley, and twins Thea and Anderson.

One of the top offensive line coaches in the nation, Conor Riley enters his second season at Kansas State in 2020.

Riley hit the ground running in 2019 as he tutored four linemen that earned All-Big 12 honors from either the league's coaches or Associated Press, the most by the Wildcats since 2012. The group was headlined by seniors Scott Frantz (second team), Adam Holtorf (honorable mention) and Nick Kaltmayer (honorable mention), while sophomore Josh Rivas was a first-team performer by the AP.

The Wildcat line paved the way for 178.0 rushing yards per game to rank fourth in the Big 12, while K-State's 29 rushing touchdowns were the third most in the league. Thanks in large part to Riley's guidance of the line, K-State led the nation in red zone offense (96.2%) — the best mark by the Wildcats since at least 2001 and the best by a Big 12 team since at least 2004. Kansas State also ranked ninth in the country and first in the Big 12 in time of possession (33:27), its best figure since 2011.

Riley came to Manhattan from North Dakota State where he coached the previous six seasons — including the last five tutoring the offensive line under head coach Chris Klieman — helping NDSU win five national championships during his tenure.

Each of Riley's six years on the NDSU staff, the Bison averaged at least 235 rushing yards per game and ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing, including a highwater mark of 286.2 yards per game in 2018 to rank seventh the nation and a 272.2-yard clip in 2017 to rank fourth. North Dakota State resided in the top 10 in time of possession in three of Riley's five years coaching the line, including a first-place mark in 2015 (36:38). Riley's lines have also finished highly in fewest sacks allowed, ranking 10th in 2016 and eighth in 2018.

Riley's 2018 offensive line blocked for the best in Bison and Missouri Valley Conference history in terms of points scored (622), touchdowns scored (80), total rushing yards (4,293), total offense (7,076) and rushing touchdowns (54). Additionally, NDSU set a school record for yards per play (7.37) and ranked second in yards per rush (6.41).

The 2018 season also saw the Bison line help NDSU rank second nationally in first down offense (327), third in third-down percentage (.524) and sixth in scoring offense (41.5).

Riley coached multiple All-Americans at NDSU, starting with fullback Andrew Grothmann in 2013, and continuing with offensive linemen Joe Haeg (2014, 2015), Zack Johnson (2015, 2016), Landon Lechler (2016), Austin Kuhnert (2017), Tanner Volson (2018) and Zack J. Johnson (2018). Haeg, a former walk-on right tackle, developed into a fifth-round NFL draft pick and is currently with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In 2018, Volson was named the top offensive lineman in the country by the FCS Athletic Directors Association, the fifth-straight Bison under Riley to earn the nod after Kuhnert (2017), Zack Johnson (2016) and Haeg (2015 and 2014). Volson also won the 16th annual Rimington Trophy as the top center among all FCS, NCAA Division II, III and NAIA players, and he was also named a First Team All-American by HERO Sports and STATS.

Volson and Zack J. Johnson each earned 2018 First Team All-Missouri Valley Conference honors, and Johnson added a First Team All-America honor from the Walter Camp Foundation.

Riley came to NDSU as tight ends and fullbacks coach in 2013 before molding one of the top offensive lines in the nation the next season. With four new starters and a fifth who was changing positions, the 2014 Bison rolled to a 15-1 record and national championship.

The Bison offensive line paved the way for a school-record 1,994 rushing yards by running back John Crockett in 2014, while NDSU ranked first in the FCS with only 3.38 tackles for loss allowed per game.

Riley spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons as the offensive line coach at Sacramento State where the Hornets' blockers allowed just seven sacks in 11 games during the 2011 season.

Prior to working on the west coast, Riley was the offensive line coach and running game coordinator at the Omaha from 2007 to 2010, which included a No. 4 national ranking in rushing offense during the 2009 season.

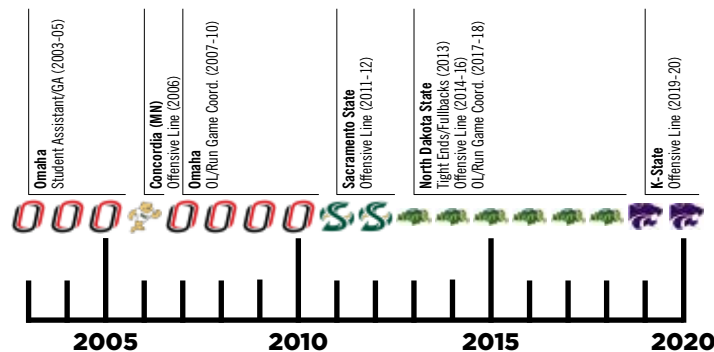

A 2003 graduate of University of Nebraska Omaha, Riley began his collegiate coaching career at UNO as a student and graduate assistant from 2003 to 2005. He left his alma mater to become the offensive line coach at Concordia University-St. Paul in 2006.

The Omaha native enjoyed a standout high school career at Creighton Prep. He began his collegiate playing career at the U.S. Air Force Academy, then transferred to Kansas before heading to UNO in 1999.

After redshirting his first season, Riley was named the North Central Conference's outstanding lineman twice in his three-year career. Following his senior year, he earned 2002 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and Daktronics All-America first team honors. Riley was a second team Division II All-American as a junior in 2001.

He and his wife, Christy, are the parents of two daughters, Cate and Claire.

* As a player

A veteran coach with ties to the Midwest and more than 30 years of coaching experience, Steve Stanard begins his first season at Kansas State in 2020 as the program's linebackers coach.

Stanard, who has 20-seasons worth of experience as a defensive coordinator, comes to K-State after spending the last three years as the defensive ends coach at Syracuse. He began his coaching career at Nebraska following his playing days with the Huskers, and he crossed paths with head coach Chris Klieman at North Dakota State in 2012 and 2013 when Stanard tutored the Bison linebackers.

Over the last two seasons tutoring the Orange edge rushers, Stanard helped Syracuse produce 56 takeaways (2.2 per game) as it held a plus-22 turnover margin during that span. Stanard guided the careers of Alton Robinson and Kendall Coleman, who developed into one of the ACC's most productive tandems during that time. Robinson logged 32.5 career tackles for loss and finished his career seventh in team history with 17.5 sacks, while Coleman registered 26.5 tackles for loss and 15.5 sacks.

In 2019, Stanard helped the Orange rank No. 12 nationally in turnovers gained (25) and No. 11 in fumbles recovered (12), while Robinson garnered All-ACC Honorable Mention accolades. In 2018, Syracuse ranked in the top 10 nationally in five statistical categories, including sacks per game (6th - 3.31). Robinson developed into a Second Team All-ACC performer and combined with Coleman to produce 20 sacks — the most of any ACC duo. Both players led the conference and tied for eighth nationally in sacks per game (0.83).

Overall, Stanard's unit was responsible for 29 of Syracuse's school-record 43 sacks in 2018 to help the Orange to a 10-3 record and the 2018 Camping World Bowl Championship.

Prior to joining the Syracuse staff, Stanard served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Wyoming from 2014 to 2016. In 2015, Stanard protégé Logan Wilson led all conference rookies in tackles per game (6.7) and was voted the 2016 Mountain West Freshman of the Year. Stanard's unit helped Wyoming to a berth in the 2016 Mountain West title game and to an appearance in the Poinsettia Bowl as the Cowboys ranked third nationally with five defensive touchdowns and were 10th in the country in takeaways (27).

Stanard went to Wyoming from NDSU as he helped the Bison earn a 29-1 record and capture consecutive FCS national titles. His work with the linebackers contributed to the Bison boasting the nation's top-ranked scoring defense in both 2012 (11.5 points per game) and 2013 (11.3 points per game). In 2013, Stanard coached Grant Olson, who was named an All-American by the Associated Press.

Stanard's experience as a defensive coordinator includes running defenses at six schools. In addition to his three years running the Wyoming defense, he spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Tulane (2009-11), five years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State (2003-07), three years as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico State (2000-02), one season as the defensive coordinator at South Dakota (1996) and five years as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska Wesleyan (1991-95).

While at Tulane, Stanard's defense led Conference USA in passing defense in two out of his three seasons there. At Colorado State, helped guide the Rams to two bowl appearances, coached four defenders to All-Mountain West First or Second Team honors, and another 24 to honorable mention all-conference recognition.

Stanard also served as the defensive line coach at Ohio in 2008, while he coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers at New Mexico State from 1997 to 1999 before being named the Aggies' defensive coordinator in 2000.

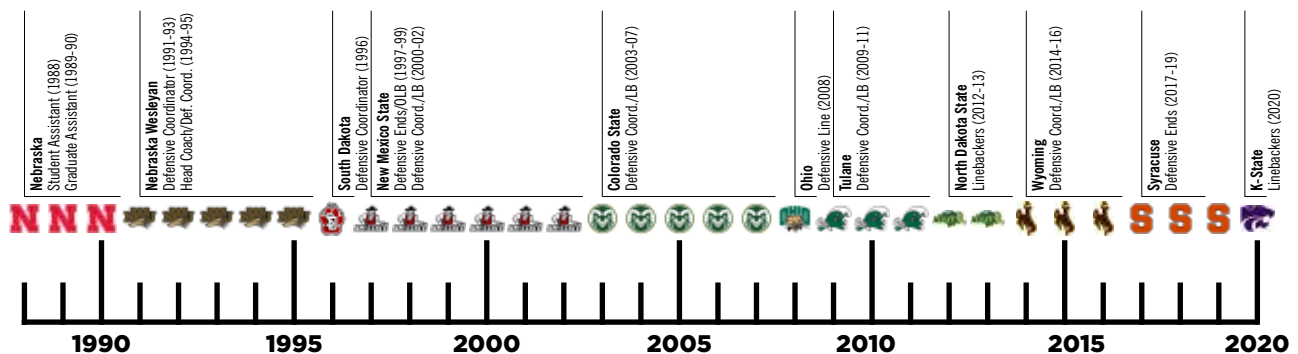

Stanard began his college coaching career in 1988 as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, Nebraska. During his time in Lincoln both on the field and on the sideline, Stanard was a member of seven bowl teams, while he has been a part of 11 total bowl squads as either a player or a coach.

After a three-year stint with the Huskers, Stanard received his first full-time coaching job in 1991 at Nebraska Wesleyan. He served as the school's defensive coordinator, and later, head coach and assistant athletic director.

Stanard earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1989 and later obtained his M.B.A. from the school in 1995.

Stanard and his wife, Jennifer, have four children — Austin, Paige, Max and Madison.

* As a player

Mike Tuiaosopo, a 29-year coaching veteran, begins his second season at Kansas State coaching the defensive tackles in 2020.

Tuiaosopo helped the 2019 Wildcat defense rank second in the nation in third-down defense (28.0%) — their lowest mark since at least 2003 — and surrender only 368.4 yards per game — the best by a K-State defense since 2013. Additionally, K-State allowed its fewest points per game — 21.4 — since 2003.

The defense was led in part by a duo of starting senior defensive tackles coached by Tuiaosopo, Trey Dishon and Jordan Mittie. Dishon, who was a four-year starter, set career highs in tackles (30) and tackles for loss (5.0), while he tied his career high in sacks (3.0). Mittie, a former graduate transfer, carded 33 tackles and tied a career high with 5.5 TFLs.

Tuiaosopo came to Manhattan after serving one season as the defensive line coach at UTEP. Prior to his time in El Paso, he served as the special teams quality control assistant at USC in 2017, which claimed the Pac-12 Conference title for the first time in nine years. The Trojans were effective in the return game, ranking third in the Pac-12 in kickoff returns (23.5 yards per return) and punt returns (11.9 yards per return).

Before serving as the special teams quality control assistant, Tuiaosopo served as an offensive consultant for USC in 2016, and he was a volunteer football analyst for the Trojans the season prior.

USC was the latest of several stops throughout the Pac-10/12 as he coached the outside linebackers and special teams at UCLA in 2014 after coaching the defensive line at Colorado in 2011 and 2012, while he coached the defensive tackles at Arizona from 2004 to 2010.

While in Westwood, the 2014 Bruin defense finished the year garnering the No. 3 spot in total defense (398.5 yards per game) in the Pac-12, which featured Tuiaosopo product Deon Hollins becoming the Bruins' sack leader in his first season as a starter. On special teams, the kickoff coverage unit ranked second in the Pac-12 as returner Ishmael Adams finished the season ranked 21st nationally in combined returns.

Tuiaosopo joined the staff at Arizona in 2004 and coached in Tucson for seven seasons, including his final three seasons where the Wildcats ranked highly in the nation in total defense (24th in 2008, 25th in 2009, 33rd in 2010). Arizona led the Pac-10 in quarterback sacks all three years, largely due to Tuiaosopo's defensive front.

Tuiaosopo tutored All-Pac 10 performer Ricky Elmore in addition to Brooks Reed and De'Aundre Reed to 2011 NFL Draft selections. Reed was a second-round pick (No. 42 overall) by the Minnesota Vikings. Tuiaosopo also coached two others that earned all-conference honors and were drafted into the NFL, Earl Mitchell — a third-rounder in 2010 — and Lionel Dotson in 2008. In 2010, he tutored Justin Washington to several Freshman All-America honors.

Tuiaosopo spent the 2003 season at Utah where he coached the defensive tackles. That season, Utah went 10-2 with a victory in the Liberty Bowl en route to a No. 21 final ranking. Tuiaosopo was instrumental in the recruitment and development of Sione Pouha, a third-round selection by the New York Jets in 2005, and Jonathan Fanene, who was drafted that same year by the Cincinnati Bengals.

Tuiaosopo got his start in coaching in 1990 and 1991 when he led the defensive line and special teams at Montclair Academy in Van Nuys, California. He then went on to become a graduate assistant at Pacific in 1991 and 1992, while he was the head coach at Berkley High School in 1993 and 1994. He earned his first full-time job collegiate job at Utah State in 1996, before moving to Nevada in 2000.

Tuiaosopo lettered four years as a defensive tackle at Pacific Lutheran University (1985-88), starting his final three years. He was a two-time First Team All-Columbia Conference performer, and in his junior year, Pacific Lutheran won the NAIA Division II National Championship. PLU was 36-7-2 during his career, and Tuiaosopo was the Lutes captain during his senior season.

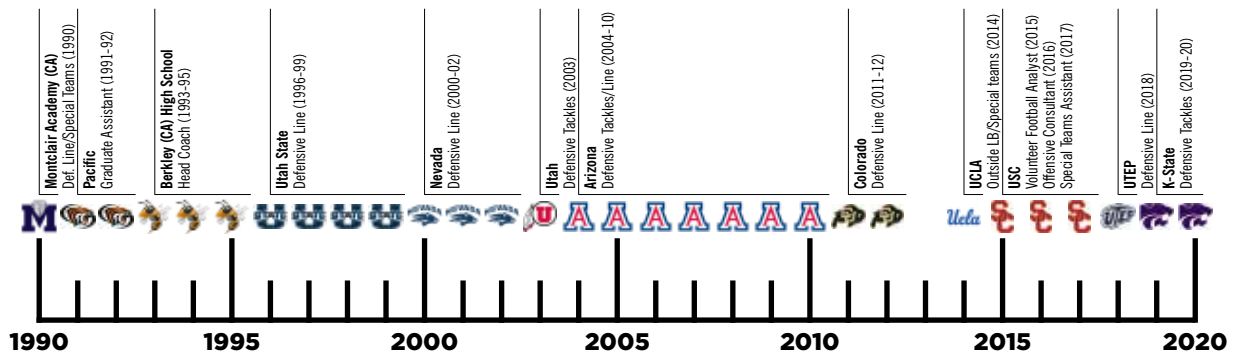

Tuiaosopo comes from a football-rich family tradition. His uncle, Bob Apisa, was a two-time All-American fullback at Michigan State and was drafted by Green Bay in 1968. A cousin, Manu Tuiaosopo, was a two-time All-American defensive lineman at UCLA, was the No. 18 overall pick by Seattle in the 1979 NFL Draft and started for the Super Bowl XIX champion (1984 season) San Francisco 49ers.

One of Tuiaosopo's younger brothers, Navy, lettered at Utah State from 1983 to 1986 and played for both the Los Angeles Rams and St. Louis Cardinals. Another younger sibling, Titus, played for USC from 1988 to 1991. Two more of Tuiaosopo's cousins played collegiately and in the NFL — John Tautolo (offensive line, UCLA/New York Giants, New England) and Terry Tautolo (linebacker, UCLA/Philadelphia, Detroit, San Francisco, Miami). His nephew, Marques Tuiaosopo, was a quarterback at Washington and was drafted by the Oakland Raiders before also playing for the New York Jets.

Tuiaosopo graduated from Pacific Lutheran with a degree in physical education and health in 1989, while he earned his master's degree from Pacific in Education Administration Credentials in 1992.

Buddy Wyatt, a veteran defensive line coach who has worked in the Big 12, SEC, Big Ten and American Athletic Conference during his 29-year career, is in his second season as Kansas State's defensive ends coach in 2020.

Wyatt went right to work with two dynamic ends at K-State, coaching senior Reggie Walker to Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honors and sophomore Wyatt Hubert to First Team All-Big 12 accolades. Under Wyatt, Hubert also earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year awards. Hubert tied for second in the Big 12 in sacks and ranked 10th in tackles for loss, and he enters 2020 ranked in the top 15 nationally among active players for a career.

Wyatt's tutelage of the ends in 2019 was a major factor in the Wildcats leading the nation in third-down defense at 28.0%, the best mark by K-State since at least 2003. Kansas State also allowed just 21.4 points per game, the second-best mark in the Big 12 and the program's best figure since 2003.

Wyatt came to Manhattan after serving as a senior analyst at Kansas in 2018. Wyatt's previous full-time assistant coaching job was tutoring the SMU defensive line from 2015 to 2017 under then-Mustang defensive coordinator and now K-State assistant head coach Van Malone.

SMU's defense was stout with Wyatt's help as the 2016 Mustangs were statistically one of the 10 most improved in college football. SMU forced 26 turnovers overall that season, one of two Mustang defenses during that three-year stretch to finish in the top 20 in turnovers. SMU also ranked 38th nationally with 31 sacks in 2017 — including eight in one game — and 30th nationally with 90 tackles for loss.

Wyatt coached a pair of all-conference players in three years at SMU, headlined by defensive end Justin Lawler. Lawler tallied 9.5 sacks in 2017 and tied for the team lead with 15.5 tackles for loss as the Mustangs had 19 different players make a tackle behind the line of scrimmage en route to their first bowl appearance in five seasons.

Wyatt's tenure in Manhattan is his seventh tour of duty in the Big 12 having coached at Oklahoma State (1996), Colorado (1999), Texas A&M (2000-02, 2008-09), Nebraska (2007) and Kansas (2010-14).

During his second stint with the Aggies — one in which he also worked with Malone — Wyatt helped the Aggies rank 15th in the country with 35 sacks and 34th nationally with 82 tackles for loss. The group was headlined by a Wyatt protégé in defensive end/linebacker Von Miller, who had 17.0 sacks that season. Miller, a two-time All-American, went on to become an NFL All-Pro player and MVP of Super Bowl 50.

In addition to Miller, Wyatt also has worked with NFL players such as Ndamukong Suh (five-time Pro Bowl selection who was the No. 2 pick in the 2010 NFL Draft), Michael Bennett (three-time Pro Bowl selection and Super Bowl champion), Jamal Williams (two-time All-Pro player), Adam Carriker (first-round draft pick in 2007), Tyler Brayton (first-round pick in 2003), Rocky Bernard (Super Bowl champion), Ty Warren (two-time Super Bowl champion), Justin Bannon, Ronald Edwards and Ronald Flegmons.

Helping teams advance to nine bowls during his career, Wyatt has also worked at a pair of Big Ten schools in Minnesota (1992-95) and Northwestern (1997-98), in addition to SEC school Alabama (2003-06).

During his career, Wyatt has been selected to the NCAA Expert Coaches Academy, a program that addresses the shortage of ethnic minorities in college football head coaching positions and raises awareness regarding the deep pool of talented, qualified coaching candidates.

A native of Victoria, Texas, Wyatt was a defensive lineman at TCU from 1986 to 1989. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from TCU in 1990 and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Horned Frogs working with the defensive line in 1991.

Wyatt and his wife, Andrea, have two children, Fredrick and Ariel. Fredrick (Fred) completed his collegiate career at Northwestern in 2018, playing in all 14 games with 10 starts as a senior, and is a current graduate assistant for K-State.

* As a player

Chris Dawson, a veteran of more than 20 years in the field of strength training, is in his 11th season as Kansas State's Director of Strength and Conditioning in 2020.

Dawson manages the department's total strength program while providing daily leadership for the Wildcats' football strength and conditioning program. The Houston, Texas, native spent the previous seven seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kansas before coming to Manhattan. Under Dawson's tutelage, 39 players have been drafted by NFL teams including 10 that were taken in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

Prior to his tenure at K-State – which has included seven bowl appearances – Dawson was a part of four bowl teams from 2003-2008 at Kansas, including a 2008 BCS appearance in the Orange Bowl. Following the successful 2007 campaign, Dawson was awarded the National Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year Award by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Dawson worked the 2001 and 2002 football seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach for the University of Minnesota after serving five-year stint at Oklahoma, his alma mater. While with the Sooners, Dawson worked with the football and men's basketball teams.

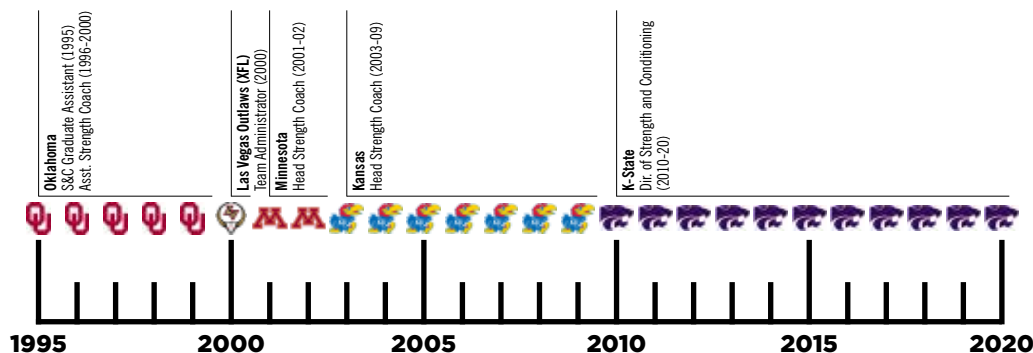

Before taking the position at Minnesota, he spent three months with the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL and two months with the Dallas Cowboys as a strength and conditioning intern.

Dawson credits his success in the strength field to his mentors at Oklahoma. He learned under Joe Juraszek, who was the strength coach at OU during his playing days and was the head strength coach for the Dallas Cowboys for 14 years. He also received valuable guidance from Blair Prince, Pete Martinelli and Jerry Schmidt, the current Director of Athletic Performance at Texas A&M.

Dawson played linebacker for the Sooners from 1992-94 and participated in a pair of postseason contests – the 1993 John Hancock Bowl and the 1994 Copper Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in business management in 1995 and his master's degree in business administration in 1999, both from Oklahoma.

Dawson and his wife, Dawn, have three children, twins Madison and Meyer, and Macey.

ADAM PILAPIL

Defensive Graduate Assistant
Wyoming, 2018

Adam Pilapil is in his first year at Kansas State as a defensive graduate assistant after spending the 2019 season at his alma mater, Wyoming, as a defensive quality control coach.

Pilapil was a four-year linebacker for the Cowboys from 2015 to 2018, including the first two years under current K-State linebackers coach Steve Stanard. Pilapil totaled 69 tackles during his time with the Cowboys, including a career-high 31 stops during his junior season to help lead UW to an 8-5 record and a victory in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

As a senior in 2018, Pilapil was part of a Cowboy defense that ranked 19th nationally in total defense, 25th in rushing defense, 28th in scoring defense and 32nd in pass defense.

A native of Torrance, California, Pilapil was named to the Academic All-Mountain West Conference team four-straight seasons, and he was selected to the 2019 National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society.

JILL SHIELDS

Deputy Athletics
Director/Senior Woman
Administrator
22nd Season

Jill Shields, who enters her 22nd year at K-State, was promoted to Deputy Athletics Director in 2017 after serving as Executive Associate Athletics Director for Student Services since 2015.

In her role, Shields oversees the daily internal operation of the entire athletics department and also serves as the department's senior woman administrator. She oversees the day-to-day operation of the football program while also serving as the sport administrator for women's basketball and volleyball. Shields was also appointed to the NCAA Women's Basketball Committee as she began a five-year term in fall 2019.

Shields had previously worked as Senior Associate, Associate and Assistant Athletics Director and Associate Director of Student Services with stints directing the support services for football, women's basketball and volleyball, as well as Life Skills programming.

Shields has played a pivotal role in the academic success of the Wildcats' 16 athletic programs, as K-State is in the midst of a multi-year stretch of high marks in the Big 12 in all-sports graduation rates while also maintaining a national standard the NCAA mandated APR multi-year reports.

Shields came to K-State after working at Wichita State for six years, including the final year as a senior admissions representative in the University's admissions office. She spent the previous five seasons as an assistant women's basketball coach for the Shockers. She also had coaching stints at the University of Central Florida, North Georgia College and Florida Southern.

She earned her bachelor's degree in Liberal Arts from the University of Central Florida in 1990. A member of the Golden Knights basketball team, Shields was named most valuable player her senior year. She earned her Master's degree in education from North Georgia College in 1992.

A native of Assaria, Kansas, Shields and her husband, Mark, have two children, Sydney and Sam. Sam is a freshman offensive lineman for the Wildcats.

HANK JACOBS

Director of Football
Administration
Second Season

Hank Jacobs was hired as Director of Football Administration in December 2018. In his role, Jacobs oversees all of the football support staff and assists with recruiting operations.

Jacobs came to K-State following a 10-year run at North Dakota State in which he was a part of seven national championship teams. He was originally hired in a full-time capacity in August 2015 as Director of Football Recruiting before being elevated to Director of Football Operations in 2016. In his previous position, Jacobs coordinated the day-to-day operations for the football staff, including team travel, campus visits and other recruiting activities.

Jacobs was an offensive lineman on the NDSU football team from 2009 to 2011 before spending two years as an undergraduate assistant. He was a two-time Missouri Valley Football Conference honor roll member and earned the Commissioner's Academic Excellence Award.

Jacobs was named an offensive intern in 2014 and assisted the Bison staff in many of the same recruiting duties he assumed in the new position.

A product of Beaver Dam High School in Wisconsin, he was an Associated Press all-state second team performer his senior year and was named Little Ten Conference lineman of the year. He was a three-time all-conference honoree.

Jacobs graduated from North Dakota State in May 2014 with a bachelor's degree in finance. He is engaged to Tahnee Matuszewicz.

KACEY FELDKAMP

Director of Football
Operations
16th Season

Kacey Harper Feldkamp is entering her 16th season at Kansas State, and second as the Director of Football Operations. She assists with much of the daily operations of the football program including coordinating team travel and bowl planning in addition to camps and clinics and managing the programs operating budget.

Feldkamp began working with the football program in 2005, serving three years as a student assistant and one year as a graduate assistant before being hired on full time in 2009. Prior to her current position, Feldkamp served as the Assistant Director of Recruiting Operations from 2009 to 2012 and was the Assistant Director of Operations from 2013 to 2015 before being promoted.

A native of Emporia, Kansas, Feldkamp earned her bachelor's degree in Family Studies and Human Services from Kansas State University in 2008 and obtained a master's degree in Counseling and Student Development from Kansas State University in 2011. She is married to John Feldkamp.

TAYLOR BRAET

Director of Football
Recruiting
15th Season

Taylor Braet enters his 15th year at Kansas State and his eighth as the Director of Football Recruiting.

Braet, who also held the title of Special Teams Quality Control coach for seven years, shifted his entire focus on recruiting prior to the 2019 season. While working with the special teams, multiple Wildcats earned All-Big 12 and All-America honors, including three-straight Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year accolades.

Braet came to K-State as a student assistant coach in 2006 working with the defense and special teams and continues to help in those areas as a quality control assistant.

Prior to his stint in Manhattan, Braet was a student assistant at Butler Community College under his father, associate head coach Steve Braet, and then-head coach Troy Morrell. Braet worked with the linebackers during the Grizzlies' 2003 National Championship run, while he helped with the defensive ends in 2004 and 2005 as Butler won conference championships all three seasons.

Born and raised in Wichita, Kansas, Braet graduated from Wichita Heights High School in 2003 and went through spring practices at Butler before beginning his coaching career. Braet, whose parents and grandparents are all Kansas natives, is married to the former Leah Ost, and the couple has two daughters, Brittany and Delaney, while they are expecting their third child this fall.

BILL BANKS

Assistant Director of Student-Athlete Services
12th Season

Bill Banks enters his 12th year at Kansas State and eighth as Assistant Director of Student-Athlete Services overseeing football. In his current role, Banks monitors student-athlete course work, degree progress and eligibility, while he is also responsible for study table supervision and tutorial development.

A former college football player himself, Banks came to K-State in 2009 to serve as a graduate assistant in football academics before earning a full-time job as an academic advisor for the College of Education in 2011. Banks was an academic counselor for football before being promoted.

Banks, a native of Houghton Lake, Michigan, played football at Alma College in Alma, Michigan, and earned his degree in exercise and health science in 2007. He obtained his master's degree in College Student Personnel from Kansas State in 2011.

He and his wife, Natalie, are expecting their first child in October.

CONNOR BENNETT

Assistant Athletic Trainer
Third Season

Connor Bennett returned to K-State in 2020 as an assistant athletic trainer working with the football program. Bennett, who served as a graduate assistant for the Wildcats for the 2014 and 2015 seasons, came back to Manhattan after serving as the head football athletic trainer the last two seasons at Boise State.

Bennett, who worked for the Broncos for three years overall, has also served as a seasonal athletic trainer for with the San Francisco 49ers for the 2016 season, while he has been a preseason intern for both Arizona Diamondbacks and Seattle Mariners during the 2014 spring training in addition to a preseason internship with the Seattle Seahawks in 2013.

Bennett earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training with a minor in biology from Boise State in 2013, while he obtained his master's degree in counseling and student development from K-State in 2016. A Certified Athletic Trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Bennett and his wife, Cheryl, have two sons, Silas and Elias.

JONI BUNKER

Program
Coordinator
Fourth Season

Joni Bunker enters her fourth year at K-State as program coordinator. Her primary responsibilities include working with the assistant coaches with game preparation, while she coordinates all aspects of the Golden Cats program.

Prior to working for K-State, Bunker served as a benefits analyst and customer service representative at Steel & Pipe Supply Company in Manhattan following a 12-year run with Aflac and a 14-year stint at Farm Bureau Mutual Insurance in 1988.

A 1985 graduate of Manhattan Area Vocational Technical College, Bunker is a 2013 graduate of the Leadership Manhattan Program, which is sponsored by the Manhattan Chamber of Commerce and participants are appointed by a committee following a submission of application. She was also a board member for the Friends of Leadership and the Boys and Girls Club of Manhattan.

Joni is married to Russ Bunker and has four children – sons Aaron and Derek Bunker (wife Katie) and Braedyn Woborny, a daughter Blake Woborny – and two granddaughters – Finley and Harper.

Al Cerbe is in his 14th season at K-State and his 10th as the equipment manager for the Wildcat football program.

Cerbe, who received his accreditation from the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) in the summer of 2011, oversees all aspects of equipment and apparel distribution and maintenance. He also helps oversee the operations of K-State's student equipment managers.

Cerbe came to K-State from the University of Memphis, where he served as a student equipment manager. In addition to his work at Memphis, Cerbe has also served equipment manager internships with the Baltimore Ravens, the Las Vegas Gladiators and the Memphis Xplorers before becoming the Head Equipment Manager for the Xplorers in 2006.

A product of Horn Lake, Mississippi, Cerbe began his career in 2004 as the head equipment manager at Northeast Mississippi Community College and graduated from Kansas State in 2010. He is married to the former Danielle Young of Ulysses, Kansas, and the couple has a daughter, Adeline, and a son, Asher.

MARISSA EDWARDS

Assistant Director of
Football Academics
Fifth Season

Marissa Edwards, a fifth-year member of K-State Athletics, enters her second season as the assistant director of football academics. In her role, Edwards helps organize and coordinate academic support for football student-athletes, as well as develops and implements individual academic success plans among other duties.

In addition to her duties as an academic counselor, Edwards is also the advisor for the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. She helps on the process and execution of various SAAC initiatives, while she coordinates the end-of-the-year Powercat Choice Awards to celebrate all student-athletes' academic, athletic and community achievements.

In June 2020, Edwards was honored with the N4A Professional Excellence Award by the National Association of Academic and Student-Athlete Development professionals.

Edwards came to K-State after working one year with the football and men's basketball student-athletes at Cincinnati, while the year prior she worked as a learning specialist at Ohio.

A native of Hanford, California, Edwards was a water polo student-athlete at Colorado State. She obtained her undergraduate degree in health and exercise science from CSU in 2009, while she earned her master's degree in sport administration from Fresno State in 2012.

SCOTT EILERT

Director of Video Services
29th Season

Scott Eilert is in his 29th season overseeing the football program's state-of-the-art video editing system as Kansas State's senior video coordinator.

Eilert has played a vital role in the success of the Wildcat football program, which was recognized by the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA) as he was inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame in May 2017.

Eilert coordinates and implements the use of video technology for practices and games, as well as managing statistical analysis tools for the coaching staff to use in game strategy preparation. He also produces numerous weekly highlight videos and vignettes for the football team and their guests.

A founding member and former executive officer of CSVA, Eilert has been named Big 12 Video Coordinator of the Year six times by the organization – including the most recent honor in March 2020 – and in 1998 was selected as the CSVA National Video Coordinator of the Year. In 2001 and again in 2003, Eilert won Savvy Awards for best motivational video, while his 2010 submission in the "highlight" category placed second.

In addition to his work assisting the coaching staff and promoting the program, Eilert has also played a major role in the upgrades and improvement of facilities around Bill Snyder Family Stadium, providing audio/visual consultation for the West Stadium Center, while he was directly involved with audio/visual integration for the Vanier Family Football Complex featuring A/V technology supporting the needs of the football players and coaching staff as well as Vanier Complex guests.

A 1991 K-State graduate, Eilert spent three years as K-State's assistant video director while an undergraduate student. He also spent one year as a video assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs as well as working for the Kansas City ABC affiliate, KMBC.

A native of Overland Park, Kansas, Eilert is married to the former Meggan Luke. The couple has two daughters, MaKenna and Hailey.

TAYLOR GODINET

Asst. Dir. of Recruiting/
Def. Quality Control
Fifth Season

A five-year member of the football team during one of the greatest eras in program history, Taylor Godinet is in his sixth season on the K-State staff as an Assistant Director of Recruiting/Defensive Quality Control.

Godinet played in 14 career games, helping the 2014 senior class finish with a combined 38-14 record, including a Big 12-best 27-9 conference mark and a 2012 Big 12 Championship. He served on field goal protection in all 13 games as a senior in 2014 while also seeing time as a defensive end. For his efforts as a senior, he was given the program's Nancy Bennett Memorial Award, which represents fight, spirit and positive nature.

A graduate of Wamego High School and native of Oceanside, California, Godinet graduated from K-State with a degree in sociology in December 2014. His younger brother, Reed, is a junior defensive end for the Wildcats.

JOE HALL

Director of Student-
Athlete Development
Second Season

Former K-State running back Joe Hall is in his second year as the Director of Student-Athlete Development.

In his role, Hall creates, develops and implements a student-athlete development program that fosters an environment of well-being and achievement. He serves as the program's liaison to various K-State Athletics support areas, including sport psychologist, athletic trainers, strength and conditioning coaches and student-athlete services, in addition to support services on campus. Hall also serves as the liaison between the program and both university and community organizations, including community-outreach organizations.

Most recently, Hall has worked as a behavior interventionist and counselor at various schools throughout northeast Kansas, including Junction City High School and Topeka West High School. While working in those schools, he helped counsel students from all walks of life, including military backgrounds, low socioeconomic backgrounds and students with behavioral issues.

Hall's work in schools came after serving three seasons as an assistant coach at MidAmerica Nazarene University in Olathe, Kansas. While at MNU, Hall began to transition to off-the-field work by guiding a working group of student-athletes with children, serving as a diversity council member and as a community liaison.

A native of Compton, California, Hall lettered two years for the Wildcats after transferring from Palomar Community College. He totaled 864 rushing yards and nine touchdowns on 160 carries during his two seasons, including a 613-yard, six-touchdown performance as a junior in 1999. That season featured a stretch of three-straight games with 100 rushing yards, including a career-best 195 yards against Utah State. Hall went on to play parts of four seasons in the NFL.

Hall obtained his bachelor's degree from Kansas State in 2012, a master's of science in management from MidAmerica Nazarene in 2015 a master's in school counseling from Kansas State. He is currently working toward his doctorate degree in organizational leadership.

Hall and his wife, Hollie, have four children, Joe III, Jorryn, Joss and Jagger.

MINDY HOFFMAN

Mindy Hoffman is in her 15th year overall at K-State and second as the Head Football Athletic Trainer. Hoffman, who is entering her 14th season working with the football program, served as an associate athletic trainer from 2013 to 2018 before being promoted.

Hoffman's career accolades include being named the 2016 Big 12 Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year, while she played a key role in the K-State Sports Medicine staff earning 2017 Big 12 Sports Medicine Staff of the Year. In 2017, she was the Texas Tech Health Sciences Center Department of Rehabilitation Science Distinguished Alumni award winner, which honors its alumni who have achieved significant professional accomplishments.

Prior to her arrival at K-State, Hoffman spent two years at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center where she received her master's of athletic training in May 2006. While at Tech, she worked primarily with the football team for two years and the women's basketball team for one season. She also spent time assisting an orthopedic surgeon while working on her master's degree.

Hoffman received her bachelor's degree in physical education from Purdue University in May 1999. She spent four years as a teacher and coach before pursuing a career in athletic training.

Hoffman, a native of Royal Center, Indiana, is a certified athletic trainer, member of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

DREW LIDDLE

Asst. Dir. of Recruiting/
Off. Quality Control
Sixth Season

Drew Liddle, who spent five years as an offensive lineman at K-State, is in his sixth year on the staff and fourth as assistant director of recruiting and offensive quality control.

Liddle played in 26 games throughout his four-year career, including his senior season in 2014 when he saw action in all 13 games with a start in the season opener against Stephen F. Austin. A 2014 Second Team Academic All-Big 12 performer, he also played in five games during K-State's Big 12 Championship season of 2012, recovering a fumbled punt in the championship-clinching game against Texas.

A native of Oak Grove, Missouri, Liddle earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Kansas State in 2014, while he obtained his MBA in 2017.

CHUCK LILLIE

Scouting
Analyst
First Season

Chuck Lillie, a bright young mind in the recruiting and scouting world, was hired as a Scouting Analyst in March 2020. In his role, Lillie evaluates film of prospects and assists the coaches in their recruiting efforts. He will also work with Director of Football Recruiting Taylor Braet and the recruiting staff in hosting prospects on campus.

Lillie worked for five seasons at Clemson while obtaining his undergraduate degree, including three seasons in recruiting. He comes to Manhattan after serving in the 2019 preseason as a Pro Scouting Intern with the New York Giants before returning to Clemson to serve as a Playoff Analyst for the Tigers' 2019 campaign.

Lillie earned his start at Clemson as a recruiting assistant from 2015 to 2017 where he collaborated with coaches and colleagues to create strategies to generate interest in Clemson among all recruits. He also assisted in the hosting of prospects and families while on campus and in Football Operations complex.

After graduating from Clemson with a degree in Sports Communication in May 2017, Lillie was a Recruiting Operations Intern for one year before pursuing his master's in Athletic Leadership and serving as a Defensive Graduate Student Intern for the Tigers during their undefeated National Championship run in 2018.

Lillie is a native of Baltimore, Maryland, and graduated from the Boys' Latin School of Maryland in 2013.

COREY MEREDITH

Assistant Strength and
Conditioning Coach
11th Season

Corey Meredith enters his 11th season at K-State after joining the program in 2010 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Meredith played college football at Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kansas. He was a team captain and all-conference selection in 1999 as well as an academic all-conference pick in 1998-99, while he earned academic All-America honors in 1999. He graduated Cum Laude from Bethany College in 2000.

Meredith was a Strength Assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs for the 2001-04 seasons, including a playoff appearance in 2003. Following his work with the Chiefs, Meredith worked at the University of Kansas from 2005-09 as he worked with the football and women's tennis programs, while he earned his master's degree in exercise science from Kansas in 2008. He is married to the former Gina Gnatzig and the couple has two sons, Bo and Ty.

JAKE OTTEN

Asst. Director of Video
Services/Administration
Second Season

Jake Otten is in his second season as assistant director of video services and administration. In his role, Otten splits his time assisting with all aspects of the football program in addition to working with both the coaching video and recruiting staffs.

He joined the Wildcats after spending the previous six seasons at North Dakota State as the video coordinator for the football program. At NDSU, Otten managed a staff of student workers responsible for the team's video from games and practices.

Otten interned with the Oakland Raiders in 2009 before spending five seasons as video coordinator at Cal Poly from 2009 to 2013.

A native of Pleasanton, California, Otten graduated from Cal Poly in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology.

EVAN RAPP

Assistant Strength and
Conditioning Coach
Fourth Season

Evan Rapp returned to K-State in a full-time capacity in 2017 to serve as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the K-State football program.

Rapp, a 2011 K-State graduate in kinesiology who also earned his master's degree in 2013, worked as a volunteer coach for the football program from January 2013 to October 2015. He got his start assisting with the men's basketball program from 2010 to 2014, while he also helped out with the Wildcat baseball team in 2014 and 2015.

Rapp came back to K-State after working the previous two years at Simoneau Sports Performance in Overland Park, Kansas, where he designed and administered strength and conditioning programs for athletes from middle school to the professional level in various sports.

Rapp and his wife, Sara, have one son, Wyatt.

DARREN HONEYCUTT

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach
14th Season

Darren Honeycutt is in his 14th season at K-State as the assistant strength coach for football and assists Chris Dawson in all aspects of the team's strength and conditioning training. Prior to arriving at K-State, Honeycutt served as the assistant strength coach at the University of Pittsburgh. Honeycutt received his start as a strength and conditioning coach and worked as an assistant on the staff at Appalachian State from 1991-94.

Honeycutt's background also includes plenty of Big 12 history. From 1994-96 he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Texas Tech working with the Red Raiders' football program. Honeycutt also worked in a similar position at Baylor from 1996-2000 before eventually heading to Louisville, where he worked with the Cardinals from 2000-2003.

Honeycutt, who played collegiately at Lenoir-Rhyne College, earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1991 and later added a master's degree from Appalachian State in 1994.

Game Notes

• Head coach Chris Klieman earned a win in his first game leading the Wildcats... The 35-point victory by the Klieman-led Wildcats was the biggest margin of victory by a K-State head coach in their debut... The previous high was 31 points as the Ward Haylett-led Wildcats defeated Kansas Wesleyan, 37-6, in 1942.

• K-State finished the game with 573 yards of total offense, which tied for the seventh most for a game in school history and the most ever in a season opener.

• Kansas State finished the game with 361 rushing yards on 58 carries... It was the most rushing yards by any Wildcat team in a season opener since 1981, when the Wildcats rushed for 368 yards in a 31-10 home-opening win over South Dakota (9/12/81).

• Junior quarterback Skylar Thompson made his second-straight start in a season opener... He became the first Wildcat quarterback since Collin Klein (2011, 2012) to win two consecutive season openers.

• Senior running back James Gilbert tallied a 100-yard game as he went for 115 yards and one touchdown on 18 carries... It was his ninth-career 100-yard game and first since the 2018 season opener against Central Connecticut when he was playing for Ball State... He was the first Wildcat to reach the 100-yard mark in their Wildcat debut since Daniel Thomas went for 104 yards against UMass on 2009.

• A total of 51,189 fans witnessed Saturday's game, marking the 11th-straight sellout of the Wildcats' season opener.

CATS RUN WILD, OPEN KLIEMAN ERA WITH WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Chris Klieman wasn't the only one making his K-State debut on Saturday night. Almost all of K-State's running backs were as well.

All left positive first impressions.

K-State won, 49-14, against Nicholls in front of a sold-out crowd. The Wildcats, who returned zero rushing yards from running backs from last season, amassed 361 rushing yards to open the Klieman era. It marked the most in a K-State season opener since at least 1981.

The Wildcats accomplished this behind, mostly, a trio of K-State newcomers: James Gilbert, Jordan Brown and Harry Trotter. Those three combined for 214 rushing yards, led by Gilbert's 115 yards on 18 carries. Each of them had one touchdown, all coming in a first half that K-State dominated by a 28-0 margin.

Tyler Burns, who returned to K-State's program after a season away, joined the rushing fray late on Saturday. He rushed for 60 yards on 10 attempts, including 56 yards on nine carries on K-State's final scoring drive about midway through the fourth quarter. He finished it with a 1-yard touchdown plunge.

For a position group that started all but empty when Klieman and his staff took over, depth did not look to be an issue after nine months of work.

Gilbert, a graduate transfer from Ball State, became the first Wildcat to eclipse 100 yards rushing in his first K-State game since Daniel Thomas in 2009. Gilbert's longest run, a 24-yard scamper in the second quarter, finished one of K-State's five scoring drives of at least 10 plays.

Trotter, a junior who sat out last season after transferring from Louisville, collected 50 yards on 10 carries. The Atchison native ran through multiple tackles on a 9-yard touchdown run that capped a 12-play, 72-yard drive to open the game. K-State followed with three straight scoring drives.

Brown, a graduate transfer from North Carolina who joined the team in July, added in 49 yards on 11 carries. He scored on a 14-yard run early in the second quarter, but he also snagged a pair of passes for 28 yards from redshirt junior quarterback Skylar Thompson, who finished 16-of-22 through the air for 212 yards and a touchdown.

The run game set the tone, helping K-State eat up more than 41 minutes of clock. But the defense factored into that as well.

K-State allowed only 17 yards in the first quarter and 64 in the first half. AJ Parker jumped a pass for an interception on Nicholls' second offensive play of the day, setting up K-State's second touchdown. The Colonels did not get a first down until the second quarter and finished with only two in the opening half.

Early in the fourth quarter, Jonathan Alexander forced a fumble and scooped it for a 25-yard touchdown. He celebrated with a sledgehammer on the sideline, part of K-State's "Pound the Stone" mantra that Klieman said the team fully bought into coming into this season.

► Game Notes

• Kansas State started 2-0 for the second time in the last three seasons and the eighth time in the last 12 years... Head coach Chris Klieman became the seventh coach in school history to win their first two games... Saturday's victory marked the 23rd-straight victory by a Klieman-led team dating back to 2017 at North Dakota State.

• Kansas State broke the 500-yard mark of total offense for a second-straight game as the Wildcats racked up 521 yards on Saturday and 573 yards last week against Nicholls... It was the first time in school history that K-State began the season with two-straight games of 500 yards total offense, while it was the first overall since 2003... That season, the Wildcats had 502 yards at Iowa State followed by 561 yards at Nebraska.

• Kansas State finished the game with 333 rushing yards on 58 carries... Paired with last week's 361 rushing yards against Nicholls, it was the first time since at least 1965 that the Wildcats started with two-consecutive outings of 300 rushing yards... It was the first time overall with consecutive 300-yard games since playing Kansas (342) and TCU (336) in 2016.

• Following five rushing scores last week, Kansas State added five more on Saturday to bring the season total to 10... It was the most rushing touchdowns by K-State in the first two games of the season since the 2002 team had 10 (5 vs. Western Kentucky, 5 vs. Louisiana Monroe)... Of the 10 rushing touchdowns this season, 9 have been by running backs... Last season, the Wildcats had 13 rushing touchdowns by running backs in 12 games.

CATS DOMINATE BOTH SIDES OF BALL IN 52-0 WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Different opponent, same dominance.

K-State totaled 521 yards of offense, allowed less than 150 yards on defense and rolled to a 52-0 win against Bowling Green.

Like last week, the Wildcats' extreme command of the game could be seen early and all over the field, including the sideline. That's where K-State's defense spent more than 22 minutes in the first half and 42 minutes for the game.

K-State's defense barely played half that on Saturday, with Bowling Green only getting 44 plays of offense.

The Falcons also went 0-for-11 on third down conversions and 0-for-2 on fourth, but the tone was set early. In Bowling Green's first four drives, the Wildcats forced three three-and-outs. They finished with eight such series en route to their first shutout since blanking South Dakota in 2015.

K-State allowed only three first downs and 81 yards of offense in the first half, which ended with the Wildcats up 38-0 — their largest halftime lead since a 42-0 advantage over Florida Atlantic in 2016. Bowling Green finished with a meager 140 yards of total offense against K-State's swarming defense — the first time the Wildcats have limited an opponent to less than 150 since 2011 against Eastern Kentucky.

K-State's offense returned the favor.

The Wildcats scored on their first seven drives in the game. After settling for a 24-yard field goal from Blake Lynch on the first drive of the game, the Wildcats finished their next six drives in the end zone.

K-State's 333 rushing yards helped push the team over 500 yards of total offense. It marked the first time in program history that K-State eclipsed 500 yards of total offense in its first two games of the season and the first time since 2003 for any two-game stretch.

Explosive plays and players were a big part of this.

Jordan Brown broke off a 50-yard touchdown run in the first quarter for K-State's first touchdown. James Gilbert, who recorded 103 yards for his second consecutive game over the century mark, picked up nearly half on a 51-yard scamper in the second quarter. Gilbert scored on the next play, his second touchdown of the day.

Quarterback Skylar Thompson continued to display his trust in redshirt freshman receiver Malik Knowles. Thompson, who finished 10-of-13 for 151 yards, targeted Knowles six times. They connected on five of them for 99 yards, including touchdown grabs of 34 and 20 yards.

K-State's early and continuous success allowed several younger players on the field for the second week in a row. In total, 88 different Wildcats and 11 true freshmen saw game time.

Quarterbacks Nick Ast and John Holcombe II traded off series for most of the second half. Freshman running back Jacardia Wright led the team with 14 carries, all in the second half, while fellow freshman Joe Ervin carried the ball eight times and scored his first touchdown from 6 yards out in the third quarter. Seth Porter and Joshua Youngblood each recorded their first catches in a K-State uniform.

► Game Notes

• The Wildcats earned their first road win in program history over a team that was in the SEC at the time the game was played... K-State's last road win over a current member of the SEC was 2008 at Texas A&M when it was a member of the Big 12... The victory over Mississippi State was also the Wildcats' first regular-season road victory over a non-conference Power 5 team since winning 28-24 at Miami in 2011... It was also the program's first regular-season victory over an SEC team since a 23-9 home win over Kentucky in 1982.

• K-State has started 3-0 for the first time since 2015 and the fifth time since 2010... Chris Klieman became the fourth coach in school history to win their first three games... The victory marked the 24th-straight victory by a Klieman-led team dating back to 2017 at North Dakota State.

• K-State added two more rushing touchdowns to bring the season total to 12... It is the most rushing touchdowns by K-State in the first three games of the season since the 2002 team had 13 (5 vs. Western Kentucky, 5 vs. Louisiana Monroe, 3 vs. Eastern Illinois)... Of the 12 rushing touchdowns this season, 10 have been by running backs... Last season, the Wildcats had 13 rushing touchdowns by running backs in 12 games.

• Malik Knowles returned a fourth-quarter kickoff 100 yards to tie the game... It was the Wildcats' seventh 100-yard kickoff return in school history and the first since Morgan Burns had one in 2015 against Iowa State... It was just the third in a road game in school history and first since Tyler Lockett did so at Texas Tech in 2011.

CATS CONTROL FOURTH QUARTER IN 31-24 WIN

STARKVILLE, Miss. — K-State faced roughly no adversity in its first two wins this season. The Wildcats knew that would end in Week 3, but they were prepared to bounce back from it in a 31-24 win at No. 23 Mississippi State in Davis Wade Stadium.

The Wildcats scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, after MSU put up 17 straight, to clinch the program's first road win against a Power Five opponent since topping Miami 28-24 in 2011. It also marked the program's first ever road win over an opponent in the SEC at the time the game was played.

Malik Knowles delivered a momentum-changing blow early in the fourth quarter of a game played in 100-degree humid temperatures. The freshman receiver tied the game at 24 with a 100-yard kickoff return. It ended a long dry spell from K-State, which included only two true offensive series and 15 total yards in the third quarter.

After the special teams score, the Wildcat defense forced two consecutive three-and-outs to give them five such stops for the game. Quarterback Skylar Thompson followed the second fourth quarter stop with a six-play, 53-yard scoring drive to take the lead. He ended it with a 15-yard touchdown pass to senior receiver Dalton Schoen with 5:37 to play.

K-State turned MSU over on downs on the ensuing drive. On fourth-and-16, AJ Parker and Elijah Sullivan capped the stop by hitting a diving MSU quarterback Garrett Schrader, propelling him into a helicopter spin that forced him to fall a yard shy of the first down marker.

K-State overcame a trio of lost fumbles with the strong fourth quarter, two on muffed punt returns and another on a Parker interception return. MSU turned those Wildcat turnovers into 17 points between the second and third quarters.

The Wildcats also turned the Bulldogs over three times, turning two of them into a combined 10 points.

Senior safety Denzel Goolsby, who led the team with 11 tackles, snagged an interception that bounced off the hands of a Mississippi State receiver in the first quarter. It led to a 35-yard field goal from Blake Lynch.

About three minutes before halftime, freshman linebacker Daniel Green scooped up a fumble to set up a 30-yard scoring drive. MSU answered, however, with a 31-second touchdown drive, finished by a 35-yard touchdown pass to take momentum into the half.

Game Notes

• Kansas State and Oklahoma State met for the 66th time in series history with the Cowboys now holding a 26-40 advantage... OSU snapped a two-game winning streak by the Wildcats... K-State fell to 11-13 all-time in Big 12 openers, while the Wildcats are now 10-14 in Big 12 road openers... Kansas State has now dropped its last five initial Big 12 road contests of the season as its last win in such occasions was at Iowa State in 2014.

• Kansas State added a rushing touchdown on Saturday to bring the season total to 13... Of the 13 rushing touchdowns this season, 11 have been by running backs... Last season, the Wildcats had 13 rushing touchdowns by running backs in 12 games.

• Kansas State was the last team in the nation to commit an offensive turnover when it did so with a fumble in the first quarter... The Wildcats went the first 189 minutes, 38 seconds of the season without an offensive turnover.

• Sophomore defensive end Wyatt Hubert finished the game with four tackles, including 2.0 sacks and a forced fumble... His 2.0 sacks tied a career high he set last year against Texas Tech, while it was his first-career forced fumble.

• Senior Devin Antclif punted seven times for a 45.9-yard average, which included a 54-yarder and a pair of punts inside the 20-yard line... It was the fourth time in his career he held an average of 45 or more yards, including the second-straight game.

K-STATE DROPS BIG 12 OPENER AT OSU

STILLWATER, Okla. — K-State figured if it could win the battle of the red zone against a high-powered Oklahoma State offense, it would have a chance in Boone Pickens Stadium.

The No. 24/22 Wildcats did so defensively, limiting the Cowboys to one touchdown in five red zone opportunities. K-State's offense, however, only reached the red zone twice and struggled to find success for most of a 26-13 loss to start Big 12 play.

OSU, ranked No. 11 nationally in total offense (533.8) and No. 12 in scoring offense (44.5) coming in, put up 526 yards of offense but was held nearly 20 points below its scoring average. The Cowboys' one touchdown in the red zone came off a drive that started on K-State's 26-yard line after a Wildcat fumble in the first quarter.

The Wildcats turned the Cowboys over twice on a pair of interceptions from Elijah Sullivan and Darreyl Patterson in the second half.

Sullivan's pick led to one of Blake Lynch's two made field goals. Patterson's occurred with K-State down 23-6 in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats scored six plays later on a 5-yard touchdown run from James Gilbert to cut their deficit to 10, but the Cowboys answered with a 6:11 drive that ended in a field goal and sealed the game.

Early on, K-State's defense kept its hopes alive. The Wildcats simply struggled to find much success on offense. They finished with 244 total yards, including 163 in the second half.

In the second quarter with K-State down 10-0, sophomore defensive end Wyatt Hubert forced a fourth down fumble to give the Wildcats the ball at the Cowboy 40. K-State failed to move the chains, however. The Wildcats converted 1-of-13 third down chances for the game.

Ultimately, OSU's three-headed attack of quarterback Spencer Sanders, running back Chuba Hubbard and receiver Tylan Wallace were too effective to keep at bay. Sanders threw for 153 yards, 145 of which went to Wallace. Hubbard finished with 296 rushing yards, highlighted by an 84-yard touchdown run in the third quarter to put OSU up 23-3.

K-State's first and biggest jolt of offense arrived after a 1-hour, 12-minute weather delay in the second quarter. Skylar Thompson connected with Sammy Wheeler for a 39-yard gain on the first play after play resumed. It was K-State's first time moving the chains, but it did not lead to a second, as the Wildcats (3-1, 0-1) settled for a 46-yard Blake Lynch field goal.

Game Notes

• Kansas State finished the game with 123 rushing yards on 40 carries... The Wildcats now have 1,089 rushing yards this season, marking just the eighth time since 2000 and just the second since 2013 they hit the 1,000-yard mark in the first five games.

• K-State's defense logged a season-best 7.0 tackles-for-loss, including a sack by junior defensive end Bronson Massie... In all, eight different players contributed to a defensive stop behind the line of scrimmage.

• Senior wide receiver Dalton Schoen hauled in six receptions for 69 yards... He moved from 29th to 25th in school history with 1,209 career receiving yards... His six receptions were a new career high, besting the five he had at Texas and Texas Tech in 2017 in addition to the Texas game in 2018.

• Redshirt freshman wide receiver Phillip Brooks caught seven passes to lead K-State for the first time in his career... The seven catches were also a new career high, in addition to a career-best in receiving yards (69).

• Junior Blake Lynch was true on both of his field goal attempts from distances of 31 and 30 yards... Coupled with two field goals last week at Oklahoma State, it was the second time in his career he had multiple field goals in consecutive games... The first was against UTSA and at West Virginia in September last season.

• Senior Devin Ancil punted six times for a 40.8-yard average... Three of his punts landed inside the Bear 20-yard line, including three inside the 10-yard line, doubling his season tally for punts into the red zone to six.

BEARS HAND K-STATE BIG 12 HOME LOSS

MANHATTAN, Kan. — K-State's searching for consistency. The Wildcats could not find much of it in a 31-12 loss to Baylor in Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State forced Baylor into five three-and-outs and six punts, including three straight of the latter to open the game. The Bears, however, collected 295 yards (69 percent) of their 426 yards of total offense on their four touchdown drives.

Wildcat punter Devin Ancil twice pinned Baylor inside its on 10-yard line. The first time, the Bears responded with a six-play, 98-yard touchdown drive in the second quarter to go up 10-3. Early in the third, the Bears went 91 yards in six plays for a touchdown to go up 17-3.

K-State, offensively, struggled to replicate those types of series.

The Wildcats put together five drives of more than 35 yards for the game and entered Baylor territory five times in the second half. They failed to sustain enough offense for many of them to matter, however.

Two of K-State's longest drives ended in Blake Lynch field goals (31 yards and 29) in the red zone. A lost fumble stopped one series. On another, with 6:24 to play and K-State down 24-6, Skylar Thompson found Dalton Schoen for a 5-yard touchdown. K-State's last drive — of 10 plays, 43 yards — ended with a turnover on downs.

K-State finished with 341 yards of offense, with Thompson connecting on 22-of-34 for 218 yards that included one touchdown and an interception that led to a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

James Gilbert carried the ball 18 times and accounted for 94 of K-State's 123 rushing yards. Schoen set a new career high for catches with six that went for 69 yards, including his third touchdown reception of the season. Redshirt freshman Phillip Brooks notched career highs in receptions (seven) and yards (69).

► Game Notes

• Junior quarterback Skylar Thompson made his 20th career start... The Independence, Missouri, native also rushed 10 times for 68 yards and a critical game-winning touchdown... With his three total touchdowns, Thompson now has 22 career touchdowns responsible for in his career, tying three others for 10th on K-State's all-time list... Thompson used a 61-yard scamper to key the Wildcats' final scoring drive, the longest run of his career, topping a previous long of 52 yards against Baylor on Oct. 6 last season.

• Thompson engineered the fourth game-winning touchdown drive in the fourth quarter or later in his career.

• Junior wide receiver Wykeen Gill set a new career high with 45 receiving yards on a team-best-tying three catches to go along with his first-career touchdown... He also tied a career long with a 22-yard reception in the third quarter en route to a K-State field goal.

• Tight end Nick Lenners scored on a 21-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter, the first of his career... It was the first time a Wildcat tight end had a touchdown catch since Zach Trujillo went 36 yards for a score at Baylor in 2014.

• Junior Jonathan Alexander blocked a TCU punt in the first quarter, which led to a K-State touchdown... It was the Wildcats' first blocked punt since Brook Monty had one last season against Texas Tech... Monty's block against the Red Raiders went for a safety while he also had one against Oklahoma State.

LATE DRIVE SEALS FIRST BIG 12 WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Standing 95 yards away from TCU's end zone in a tie game about midway through the fourth quarter, K-State's offense needed a productive series simply to keep the Horned Frogs out of good field position.

A first down or two for K-State, with 190 total yards of offense at the time, would have been positive, especially with the way Devin Ancil was punting.

The Wildcats had other plans, however. They marched the ball down the field in 11 plays, ate up 5:18 of game clock and Skylar Thompson ended the game-winning drive with a 3-yard touchdown run to propel K-State (4-2, 1-2) to a 24-17 win against TCU on Saturday afternoon.

Thompson helped deliver K-State's second-longest touchdown drive of the season (97 yards against Nicholls) and its longest against a Big 12 opponent since a 98-yard scoring drive against Texas Tech in 2017.

It also came at a point when the Wildcats were struggling to move the chains. Their previous three drives ended in punts and a combined 24 yards.

Thompson said he felt like "it was just a matter of time" before the offense got going like it did in the second quarter on a 10-play, 76-yard scoring drive. K-State also scored on a short field in the first quarter, after Jonathan Alexander blocked and recovered a punt on TCU's second possession. Thompson connected with Nick Lenners for a 21-yard touchdown pass two plays later.

Thompson, who finished the drive with his third rushing touchdown of the season, also sparked it with his legs. After a 5-yard completion to Knowles to gain some breathing room, Thompson took off on a designed second-down run for 61 yards, a career long that put K-State in TCU territory.

Two plays later, K-State faced a third-and-11. Again, Thompson put on his playmaking hat. On third down, he connected with Chabastin Taylor for 10 yards. On fourth, he used his legs to turn a play action bootleg into a 2-yard gain when nothing else was open.

Two plays after that gritty run, K-State stared down another third-and-long. This time, the Wildcats needed nine yards. Thompson converted it with a 10-yard completion to Knowles to put K-State inside TCU's 10. After a 4-yard run from Harry Trotter, Thompson broke into the end zone on second-and-goal.

Game Notes

• Kansas State broke a four-game overall losing streak to the Sooners and snapped an eight-game skid in Manhattan... It was the first win at Bill Snyder Family Stadium against Oklahoma since a 42-35 win on October 26, 1996.

• K-State improved to 4-52 all-time against teams ranked in the top five of the Associated Press Top 25 poll, including a 3-24 mark at home... The Wildcats' last win against a team ranked in the top five was a 45-42 home victory over No. 4 Texas in 2006.

• Skylar Thompson rushed for four touchdowns... His four rushing touchdowns set a new career high as his previous high was one on 11 occasions... He is the first Wildcat with at least four rushing scores in a game since Alex Barnes had four against Oklahoma State in 2018, while he is the first K-State signal caller with at least four rushing scores in a game since Joe Hubener had four against TCU in 2015.

• Wide receiver Joshua Youngblood scored a four-yard jet sweep in the second quarter... It was his first-career rushing touchdown on the first rushing touchdown by a Wildcat true freshman since Logan Dold against Oklahoma on October 25, 2008.

• Devin Anctil averaged a new career-high 53.3 yards on three punts, which included two punts of 50 or more yards... His 53.3 yards per punt average surpassed his previous best of 50.6 earlier this year at Mississippi State.

CATS HOLD OFF NO. 5 OU FOR UPSET VICTORY

MANHATTAN, Kan. — K-State's stadium erupted with cheers. Soon, its student section emptied onto the field to celebrate K-State's 48-41 win against No. 5 Oklahoma.

Most of them — the students and the players — were not alive the last time K-State topped Oklahoma at home in 1996. First-year head coach Chris Klieman was coaching defensive backs at Western Illinois at the time.

Fans had not rushed the field at Bill Snyder Family Stadium since clinching a Big 12 Championship at home against Texas in 2012. This time, the Wildcats knocked off the four-time defending Big 12 champion.

For a little more than three quarters, K-State's execution was something special.

Behind it, the Wildcats overcame 10-0 and 17-7 deficits in the first quarter to take a 24-23 lead to halftime. They outscored Oklahoma 17-0 in the third quarter to build a 25-point lead and they held on in the fourth quarter for the victory.

K-State's win was sealed when an onside kick recovery by Oklahoma with less than two minutes left was overturned by replay review, prompting a loud roar in the stadium and putting K-State's offense into the victory formation.

Thompson and K-State's offense came together quickly after a three-and-out to start the game.

The Wildcats followed that series with three consecutive scoring drives of 10 or more plays that ate up a combined 15:45 of clock. K-State ended up with eight straight scoring drives between the first and fourth quarter — the most against a Big 12 opponent since recording eight in 2012 against West Virginia. K-State's run of scores was capped by a 10-play, 73-yard touchdown drive to go up 48-23 early in the fourth quarter.

The Wildcats used effective offense as a second defense, winning the time of possession by more than 16 minutes (38:08 to 21:52). They did so, in part, with a rejuvenated run game.

K-State rushed for 213 yards, led by James Gilbert's 105 on 13 carries. Jordon Brown, in his first action since K-State's Big 12 opener against Oklahoma State, added 63 yards on 12 carries. Thompson chipped in 39 yards and a career-high four scores on the ground. He also connected on 18-of-28 through the air for 213 yards, hooking up with nine different receivers.

The Wildcats also forced and took advantage of a pair Oklahoma turnovers, turning them into 14 points.

AJ Parker intercepted a pass off an Oklahoma trick play late in the first half. Thompson scored three plays later on a 14-yard draw on third-and-10.

Senior linebacker Eric Gallon forced a fumble on a pooch kick, and K-State recovered en route to one of Thompson's touchdown runs.

K-STATE RUNS SUNFLOWER STREAK TO 11

LAWRENCE, Kan. — No. 22/25 K-State ran over rival Kansas on both sides of the ball in a 38-10 win at Memorial Stadium.

Of K-State's 471 yards of total offense, the Wildcats amassed 342 of them on the ground in their third-straight win. K-State's sweltering defense also limited Kansas, coming off consecutive 500-plus yard games, to a mere 241 in the 117th version of Sunflower Showdown. More than 100 of those yards came after K-State went up 38-3 early in the fourth quarter, too.

Skylar Thompson led the way with a career-high 127 rushing yards, as K-State cruised to its 11th-straight win against the Jayhawks and became bowl eligible the earliest in a season since 2014. Thompson found the end zone three times on the ground, giving him seven rushing touchdowns between his last two games — the most since by a Wildcat since his position coach, Collin Klein, did so as a player in 2012.

With James Gilbert out with an injury and Jordon Brown (2 carries for 8 yards) limited, junior running back Harry Trotter stepped into a bigger role and added in a career-high 92 yards on 20 carries and a touchdown, while freshman Joe Ervin tacked on 46 yards on 10 carries. Tyler Burns contributed 58 rushing yards late in the game, highlighted by a 14-yard touchdown.

K-State's run success led to an 11-of-17 third down success rate, a season high third down total, which helped the Wildcats churn out consecutive 10-play touchdown drives to start the game. The Wildcats added a nine-play, 75-yard touchdown drive early in the third quarter to go up 24-3.

K-State's ground game also kept the clock going and Kansas' offense off the field, as the Wildcats won the time of possession by more than 16 minutes (38:03 to 21:57). It marked the biggest time-of-possession margin in K-State's favor in a Big 12 game since a 2016 win against Texas.

On top of stifling a dangerous Kansas offense, the Wildcats forced a pair of turnovers, recorded a season-high four sacks and stopped the Jayhawks twice on fourth down in the fourth quarter. K-State turned both fourth down stops into touchdowns.

K-State set the defensive tone early, too. The Wildcats held Kansas to 74 yards of total offense, including 27 rushing yards, in the first half — the least yards allowed by a Wildcat defense in a Big 12 game since 2012 against West Virginia.

When K-State hit an early offensive wall, its defense stepped up time after time. Jahron McPherson snagged an interception on Kansas' third drive. Senior Trey Dishon picked up sacks on consecutive drives after that, both on second down to help halt the Jayhawk offense.

Near the end of the first half, K-State linebacker Da'Quan Patton picked off Carter Stanley to help set up a 39-yard field goal from Blake Lynch to end the half up 17-3.

Game Notes

• Kansas State improved its winning streak over Kansas to 11-straight games, tying the longest streak by either team in the series... It is tied with the Wildcats' 11-game streak over the Jayhawks from 1993-2003... The victory was also the sixth-straight win by K-State in Lawrence, its longest in series history.

• With the win, K-State qualified for its 22nd bowl in school history and the ninth in the last 10 years... It is the earliest in the season (game 8) in which K-State became bowl eligible since 2014 (game 7)... Chris Klieman became the second coach in school history to lead the Wildcats to a bowl game in his first season... Klieman is the fourth head coach to lead the Wildcats to bowl eligibility, following Jim Dickey (1982), Bill Snyder (1993-2003, 2010-17) and Prince.

• K-State had five rushing touchdowns... Paired with its six rushing scores the previous week against Oklahoma, the Wildcats have at least 11 rushing scores over a two-game stretch in Big 12 play for the first time since 2002... That season, K-State had six against both Iowa State and Nebraska.

• Skylar Thompson made his 22nd career start on Saturday, rushing for 127 yards and three touchdowns on 17 carries... He became the first quarterback with 100 rushing yards and 100 passing yards in the same game since Alex Delton did so against Oklahoma in 2017... He is the first quarterback with a 100-yard rushing game since Delton against UCLA in the 2017 Cactus Bowl... Adding to his four rushing scores against OU, Thompson's seven rushing TDs in a two-week span are the most since Collin Klein in 2012.

Game Notes

• Kansas State and Texas met for the 20th time in series history with the Longhorns evening the series at 10-10... Texas has now won three-straight games – its longest winning streak in the series – including four-straight games in Austin.

• Skylar Thompson threw for a career-high 253 yards and two touchdowns on 17-of-27 aim... Thompson's 253 passing yards bettered his 218-yard performance earlier this season against Baylor... He almost set his career high in the first half as he finished the first frame with 217 yards... Thompson now has 23 career passing touchdowns to tie for 10th in school history with Darrell Dickey (1979-82).

• Malik Knowles hauled in a 70-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter... It was the Wildcats' longest pass since Isaiah Zuber had a 72-yarder against UTSA on September 15, 2018... It was K-State's longest pass in a Big 12 game since Dalton Schoen went 82 yards for a score at Texas on October 7, 2017.

• Joshua Youngblood returned a fourth-quarter kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, the first kick-off-return score of his career... It was the second by the Wildcats this season after Malik Knowles' 100-yard return at Mississippi State... It marks the first time since 2017 that K-State had multiple kick-off-return scores in a season and the first with two returns of at least 98 yards since Morgan Burns had a pair of 100-yard returns in 2015.

• A pair of K-State starting defenders notched new career high in tackles as linebacker Elijah Sullivan and cornerback Kevion McGee each carded nine stops.

K-STATE RALLIES, FALLS TO HORNS ON FIELD GOAL

AUSTIN, Texas – No. 16 K-State rallied from a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to tie the game, but Texas clinched a 27-24 win against the Wildcats with a field goal as time expired at Texas Memorial Stadium.

Joshua Youngblood injected K-State with new life early in the fourth quarter, as the true freshman receiver broke off a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. It ended Texas' run of 24 unanswered points and cut the Wildcat deficit to three, 24-21.

K-State's defense followed suit by forcing a three-and-out, which led to a 45-yard field goal from Blake Lynch to even the game.

Texas answered with the game-winning drive, keyed by a conversion on third-and-14. The Longhorns, who went 67 yards in 13 plays to eat up the final 6:45 of the game, drug the clock down to three seconds before Cameron Dicker notched the game-winner from 26 yards out to end K-State's three-game winning streak.

K-State got off to the exact start it needed. The Wildcats scored the game's first two touchdowns, including one on the third play from scrimmage, to take an early 14-0 lead.

After a pair of runs to start the game, Skylar Thompson found redshirt freshman receiver Malik Knowles on a wheel route out of the backfield for a 70-yard touchdown. Knowles finished with 94 yards receiving on three catches.

Thompson, who finished with a career-high 253 passing yards on 17-of-27 through the air, then engineered an eight-play, 63-yard touchdown drive. The redshirt junior quarterback capped it with a 19-yard touchdown pass to Wykeen Gill for an early two-score advantage. Dalton Schoen, who finished with five catches for 68 yards, snagged a pair of third passes on this drive for 35 of those yards.

K-State's offensive hit a wall afterward, however.

On their first two drives, the Wildcats picked up 138 yards of offense on 11 plays (12.5 yards a play). They managed just 136 yards on their next six drives, 34 plays in all (4.0 yards a play). K-State was also limited to a season-low rushing total of 51 yards on 26 attempts.

Texas scored on only one of its five series in the first half, an 80-yard touchdown drive that accounted for nearly half of its total yards (162) at the break. The Longhorns picked up steam in the second half, tallying 315 yards and 20 points in the final two quarters against K-State

• Junior quarterback Skylar Thompson threw for a career-best 299 yards, topping a new high (253) set at Texas... Thompson became the first K-State quarterback to throw for 250 yards or more in back-to-back games since Jake Waters closed the 2014 season with five straight... He completed a single-game, career-best 24 passes and climbed past Paul Watson (301), Eli Roberson (307) and Darrell Dickey (319) into seventh on K-State's career completions list with 321... Thompson's TD pass gives him sole possession of 10th on K-State's touchdown passes leaderboard with 24... He improved his career total offense figure to 4,958 yards, which is 10th on the K-State chart.

• Kansas State scored on its first offensive play of the game, a 68-yard strike from Skylar Thompson to Dalton Schoen... It was the first time K-State scored a touchdown on its first offensive play of the game since a one-yard TD run against Montana State on September 6, 2008.

• Kicker Blake Lynch connected on 2-of-2 field goals on Saturday, his eighth career multi-field goal game... He has now made 27 career field goals to move into a tie for 10th in school history with Jeff Snodgrass.

• Senior defensive tackle Jordan Mittie logged a pair of tackles for loss in the first half... It was the most TFLs for Mittie in 22 games as a Wildcat and the third multi-TFL game of his collegiate career.

• Redshirt freshman Wayne Jones led the Wildcats in total tackles for the third time this season.

LATE DRIVE COMES UP SHORT IN 24-20 LOSS

MANHATTAN, Kan. — K-State scored touchdowns on its opening drive of the first and second half but failed to put a game-winning series together on its final possession in a 24-20 loss to West Virginia.

On its 8-yard line with 2:53 to play, K-State marched to WVU's 30-yard line with less than 40 seconds left before Skylar Thompson, who recorded career highs in passing yards and completions, was intercepted at the Mountaineer 3-yard line. It marked his second interception of the day, after coming into the game with one.

West Virginia scored the game's final 10 points, all in the fourth quarter, starting with a 51-yard field goal from Casey Legg. The Mountaineers took the lead on a 50-yard touchdown pass from Jarret Doege on a third-and-22 attempt with 11:27 to play.

One of those key factors: Red zone scoring. While K-State outgained West Virginia, 421 yards to 319, the Wildcats were outscored by four (17-13) in the red zone.

The Mountaineers scored on three of four red zone opportunities and turned two of them into touchdowns on third-down passes of 19 and 15 yards from Doege. His second touchdown pass, which occurred as the first quarter ended to take a 14-10 lead, was made possible after K-State committed a personal foul on a missed field goal attempt to give the Mountaineers a new set of downs.

The Wildcats, in three red zone trips, twice settled for field goals (22 and 33 yards) on drives of 11 and 12 plays, respectively, in the first half. K-State running back James Gilbert notched the team's lone red zone touchdown, a 3-yard run to cap a 13-play, 70-yard drive that ate up 7:04 of game clock to start the second half.

K-State did start on a positive note, however.

After forcing a West Virginia three-and-out to open the game, Thompson connected with Dalton Schoen for a 68-yard touchdown on the team's first offensive play. The momentum was short lived, as West Virginia answered with a 75-yard touchdown drive. The Mountaineers found the end zone on their next drive as well.

Offensively, Thompson made some big plays with his arm to get K-State into WVU territory.

On a series that reached second-and-25, the redshirt junior quarterback scrambled and hit Phillip Brooks on third-and-10 for 22 yards. The drive ended in a Blake Lynch field goal. Later in the half, Thompson spun out of a near-sack on another third down and hit Landry Weber for 15 yards. That drive also ended with a Lynch field goal, this time from 33 yards out to improve him 13-of-14 on the year.

Thompson converted two third-and-long chances through the air on K-State's first drive of the second half, highlighted by a 16-yard pass to Schoen on a third-and-15. It helped set up Gilbert's touchdown, K-State's last points of the game.

► Game Notes

• Chris Klieman tied the school record for wins by a first-year head coach in school history with seven... He joins College Football Hall of Famer Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf, who went 7-2-1 and won a Big 6 Championship in his first and only season at K-State in 1934, and Ron Prince, who went 7-6 in his first season of 2006.

• Skylar Thompson became the fourth quarterback in school history to throw for 4,000 career yards and rush for 1,000 career yards... He moved into 10th place in school history in career passing yards (4,214), while his season passing yardage of 2,134 ranks fifth among juniors... He also improved his career touchdown pass mark to 26 to take over ninth place in school history, while his 44 career touchdowns responsible for are tied for eighth... Thompson improved his career total offense number to 5,218, the eighth most in school history.

• True freshman Joshua Youngblood returned a third-quarter kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown... It was his second KOR score this season (98 yards at Texas)... He is the second true freshman to return multiple kickoffs for touchdowns in a season, joining Tyler Lockett (2011)... Lockett had a 100-yard return at Texas Tech that season along with a 97-yarder at Kansas.

• Senior linebacker Da'Quan Patton recorded an interception in the first quarter... It was his second pick of the season, the first being on November 2 at Kansas... He became the first Wildcat linebacker with multiple interceptions in a season since Elijah Lee had two in 2016... Patton also added a career-high 10 tackles, while fellow backer Elijah Sullivan tied his career high with nine.

CATS HOLD ON FOR 30-27 WIN AT TEXAS TECH

LUBBOCK, Texas — K-State scored on four of its first five possessions of the second half, including three touchdowns, but it was the Wildcats' last drive, a scoreless series, that sealed a 30-27 win at Texas Tech.

After a Texas Tech touchdown cut K-State's lead to three, the Wildcats (7-4, 4-4) ate up the final 3:58 of the game to end a two-game losing skid and win their third road game this season.

Skylar Thompson, who threw for 248 yards on the night, used his legs to put the game away. Facing a third-and-11 to start K-State's last drive, Thompson took off on a designed draw for 17 yards.

Two plays after Thompson's big run, running back James Gilbert played his biggest part when he broke a tackle and cut across the field for an 18-yard gain to put K-State in the victory formation.

K-State came out of halftime with a 6-3 lead, an advantage that held after both offenses heated up.

Both teams traded a pair of touchdowns to start the second half, followed by alternating field goals. Thompson, facing a third-and-6 on K-State's first drive out of halftime, connected with Phillip Brooks on a crossing route for a 14-yard touchdown. Later, Thompson hit Chabastin Taylor for a 48-yard score to go up 30-20.

In between Thompson's touchdown passes, Joshua Youngblood notched the team's other score with a 100-yard kickoff return. It marked the true freshman's second such score this season and boosted K-State's lead to 20-10.

Senior safety Denzel Goolsby picked off a Jett Duffey pass in the end zone on Texas Tech's ensuing drive, K-State's second consecutive stop at the time and its second interception of the game. Da'Quan Patton snagged the other in the first half, which led to one of Blake Lynch's two 32-yard field goals.

► Game Notes

• With the win, the Wildcats have now won 11 of the past 12 meetings and are 25-5 in the last 30 meetings, while they have won each of the last seven games in Manhattan... K-State has now won five-straight Senior Day games dating back to 2014.

• The Wildcats' eighth win this season gave Chris Klieman the school record for most wins by a first-year head coach... Klieman's eight wins are the second most by a first year Power 5 coach, behind only Ohio State's Ryan Day.

• Joshua Youngblood took back the opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown... It was his third of the season and second in as many games... He took over the school record for kickoff-return touchdowns by a freshman, a record that was previously held by Tyler Lockett (2011)... He is the first K-State player to return the opening kickoff of the game for a touchdown since Morgan Burns in the 2015 season opener against South Dakota and the third ever... He is the first player with kickoff-return touchdowns in consecutive games since Burns did so against Texas Tech and Iowa State.

• Jordon Brown rushed 19 times for 91 yards and a touchdown... He set K-State career highs in rushes and yards... Brown's rushes tied a career-high mark he originally set when playing for North Carolina against Miami on October 28, 2017.

STRONG FOURTH QUARTER PUSHES CATS PAST ISU

MANHATTAN, Kan. — K-State scored 13 unanswered points to send its 27 seniors out with a 27-17 win in their home finale against No. 23 Iowa State.

In a cold environment with intensely swirling wind conditions, the Wildcats topped the Cyclones through some stout defense and ball control in the second half to end the regular season in a tie for third in the Big 12 standings.

Of the final 21:40 of the game, K-State held the ball for 16:41. The Wildcats ran for 231 yards, including 107 in the fourth — all of the team's offense in the last quarter, when they possessed the ball for 10:01.

Senior graduate transfer Jordon Brown led the Wildcats with 91 yards on 19 carries, including a 15-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to go up 24-17. True freshman Jacardia Wright added 60 yards on six carries, highlighted by a 12-yard touchdown burst to put K-State up 14-0 in the first quarter. In the fourth quarter, Wright broke off a 37-yard run on the first play of K-State's final scoring drive.

Coming out of halftime in a 14-all tie, the Wildcats limited the Cyclones to 68 yards of total offense in the second half. That included just 13 yards in the third quarter. K-State, the No. 4-ranked third-down defense in the nation coming in, held Iowa State to 1-of-13 on third down.

K-State also forced Iowa State into three three-and-outs in the final two quarters and six for the game. One of those quick stops came after the first of two Skylar Thompson turnovers on consecutive drives in Wildcat territory in the third quarter. Following a lost fumble on K-State's 46, Iowa State went backward 11 yards in three plays before punting.

K-State's defense was put in a tough spot again when Thompson was intercepted on the next offensive play. Still, the Wildcats kept Iowa State out of the end zone and limited the damage to a field goal — the Cyclones' last points of the game.

K-State started the game with similar confidence after true freshman Joshua Youngblood took the opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown — his third such score this season.

The Wildcats then forced Iowa State into four consecutive punts in the first half. They put together a 13-play, 98-yard touchdown drive during that stretch to extend their lead to 14-0 early in the second quarter.

That advantage vanished, however, when Iowa State scored touchdowns on back-to-back drives. One score was made possible by a fourth-and-13 conversion, while the other came off a fourth-and-goal.

The Wildcats started to make those plays in the second half. Brock Purdy, 8-of-14 for 124 yards in the first half, finished the game 15-of-30 for 185 yards. The sophomore came into the game averaging nearly 315 passing yards a game.

After his pair of turnovers, Thompson brought some life to K-State's offense. He hit Chabastin Taylor for 22 yards and, two plays later, Phillip Brooks for 19 to put the Wildcats in position for Blake Lynch to hit a game-tying 43-yard field goal against the wind.

K-State scored on its next two drives to all but seal the win and make Klieman the winningest first-year head coach in program history and the second winningest first-year coach in the FBS this season.

Game Notes

• The Liberty Bowl was the first all-time meeting between Kansas State and Navy and the first for the Wildcats against a service academy since hosting Army in 1987... Kansas State is now 9-13 all-time in bowl games, including a 0-2 mark in the Liberty Bowl.

• Redshirt freshman Phillip Brooks returned a second-quarter punt 66 yards for a touchdown... It was K-State's fourth punt-return touchdown in a bowl game and the first since Yamon Figs went 76 yards for a score in the 2006 Texas Bowl... It was the second-longest punt return in Liberty Bowl history and the third longest in K-State bowl history.

• Reggie Walker made four tackles, including one sack... He finished in a tie for 10th in school history in career sacks with 18.0, tying Tim Colston (1992-95).

• Junior place kicker Blake Lynch was true on a 39-yard field goal and a pair of extra points... He finished the season with 103 points, just one shy of the top 10 in school history for a season and tied for the fourth most by a junior in school history... He finished the season 19-of-21 on field goals, tying for fourth in school history in single-season field goals made... His final 90.47-percent mark on field goals ranks third in school history, while his 89.19 career percentage is currently the top mark in school history.

• Devin Antcil finished his career with a 44.80-yard average on his 83 career punting attempts, a new school record... His season average of 45.38 yards on 56 attempts this season is the new single-season school record.

LATE FIELD GOAL LIFTS NAVY OVER K-STATE

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — No. 21 Navy scored on one trick play in the third quarter and used another to convert a fourth-down to set up a game-winning 23-yard field goal with two seconds left in regulation to beat K-State, 20-17, in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in front of 50,515 fans.

After K-State tied the game at 17 with 5:14 left, Navy started to make those plays. They converted two third downs before the Wildcats stonewalled a Midshipmen third-and-3 attempt at K-State's 46-yard line with less than a minute left in regulation.

On fourth down, Navy running back CJ Williams took a pitch to the right side of the field on what looked like a normal sweep play. That was until he pulled up and hit Chance Warren down the sideline for a 41-yard completion.

Bijan Nichols, who finished the game 2-for-3 on field goals, nailed the game winner two plays later after K-State called its final three timeouts.

The halfback pass marked the second successful trick play from Navy. Coming out of half-time in a 10-all tie, the Midshipmen capped their first drive of the second half with a 20-yard touchdown run on a reverse to Warren.

The Wildcats got going on offense just in time to keep their chances of winning alive. Their game-tying drive in the fourth quarter of seven plays, 79 yards nearly doubled the team's total offense up to that point (83 yards).

Thompson went 3-for-3 through the air for 66 yards on the drive, highlighted by a 42-yard strike down the middle of the field to Wykeen Gill, who had a 15-yard catch the play before. Thompson scored two plays later on a sneak up the middle, giving life to a K-State team that spent most of the night defending Navy's potent triple-option offense.

The Midshipmen possessed the ball for 36:31 of the game, thanks in large part to their 323 rushing yards. Senior quarterback Malcom Perry accounted for 213 of those rushing yards on 28 carries. Perry, named the Liberty Bowl's Most Valuable Player, also went 5-of-7 through the air for 57 yards and a 27-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

K-State missed a few opportunities to score on its opening drive, as an underthrown pass and a drop on consecutive plays ended it. The Wildcats first found the end zone on a 66-yard punt return from Phillip Brooks to take a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter. Blake Lynch nailed a 39-yard field goal late in the half to even the game going into the locker room.

The Wildcats only got one possession in the third quarter, however, and it went backwards 11 yards after an errant snap derailed the drive.

BILL SNYDER

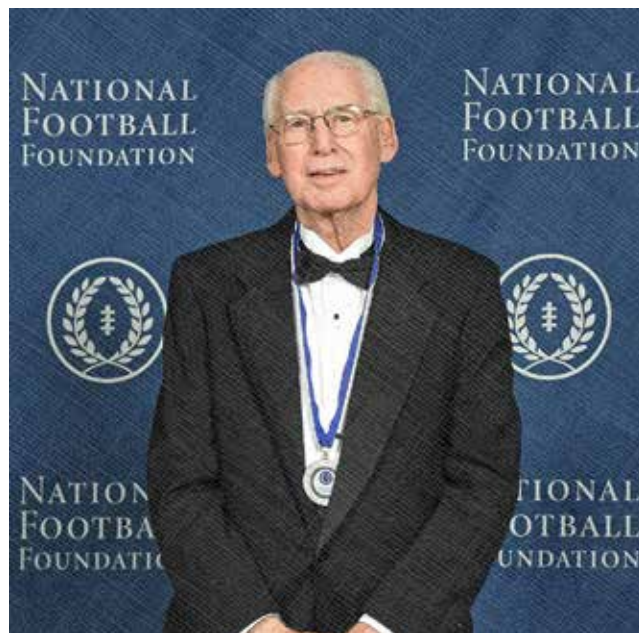

Class of 2015

Bill Snyder, the architect of the “greatest turnaround in the history of college football,” became just the fourth person in the history of college football to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as an active coach as the legendary K-State coach was part of the National Football Foundation’s College Football Hall of Fame Induction Class of 2015.

A five-time national coach of the year honoree and seven-time conference coach of the year recipient, Snyder compiled an amazing 215-117-1 record in his 27 years as the helm of the Wildcat program, leaving as the 20th winningest coach in FBS history. Called the “coach of the century” by hall of fame coach Barry Switzer, Snyder’s accomplishments at K-State were nearly unthinkable considering what he inherited during his first tour of duty beginning in 1989. The Wildcat program was in the midst of an 0-26-1 run when he was hired and had been just one bowl game in its first 93 seasons. During a the span of 11-straight bowl seasons (1993-2003), Snyder’s Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories – a staggering 10 wins per season – and making K-State the nation’s second winningest program over that period. His first tenure included a Big 12 Championship in 2003 in a 35-7 win over No. 1 Oklahoma, while his 1998 team held a No. 1 ranking.

Following a three-year hiatus, Snyder returned to the sidelines in 2009, and it was more of the same as his teams accumulated a 79-49 record and eight bowl berths in his final 10 seasons.

Included in the second tenure was a pair of 10-win campaigns in 2011 (10-3) and 2012 (11-2). The 2012 Wildcats captured the program’s second Big 12 Championship and held another No. 1 national ranking. After turning 75 years old on Oct. 7, 2014 – which qualified him to be included on the 2015 ballot – Snyder’s team promptly traveled to No. 11 Oklahoma and pulled out a 31-30 victory, a key component of the Wildcats’ nine-win season in 2014.

MARK SIMONEAU

Linebacker • 1996-99 • Class of 2012

Former Consensus All-American Mark Simoneau became just the second Wildcat football player and first under head coach Bill Snyder to be elected to the Hall of Fame. He was enshrined as a member of the Class of 2012.

Simoneau was a Consensus All-American and the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in 1999 en route to being the runner-up for the Butkus Award that same season. A K-State Ring of Honor inductee and a four-year starter for Snyder, Simoneau led the Wildcats to a 42-7 record during his career while totaling 400 career tackles and a school-record 251 unassisted stops. K-State also collected a 28-4 Big 12 record during Simoneau’s career, won two Big 12 North titles and appeared in four straight bowl games.

GARY SPANI

Linebacker • 1974-77 • Class of 2002

Gary Spani became the first K-State player to be inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (2000) and the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame (2004), Spani was Kansas State’s first-ever consensus All-American in 1977, and also was a three-time All-Big-8 Conference selection.

Spani led the Wildcats in tackles three straight season and was twice named the team’s most valuable player. To this day, he continues to dominate the K-State career record book as the program’s all-time leader in career tackles (543), assisted tackles (343) and assists in a season (110).

Following graduation in 1978, Spani was chosen in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He went on to play all nine years of his career with the Chiefs and led the organization in tackles four straight seasons.

CHARLES BACHMAN

Head Coach • 1920-27 • Class of 1978

Charles Bachman, who coached the K-State football team from 1920-27, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame on Jan. 8, 1978. Bachman began his coaching career at Great Lakes Naval Station in 1918 and led that team to the 1918 Rose Bowl title and the national championship. He moved to Northwestern University in 1919 before joining the Wildcats in 1920. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1995), Bachman’s eight-year won-loss record at K-State was 33-23-9.

LYNN “PAPPY” WALDORF

Head Coach • 1934 • Class of 1966

Lynn O. “Pappy” Waldorf coached K-State to its first football championship in 1934 while posting a 7-2-1 record in the Big Six Conference with wins over Oklahoma, Nebraska and Kansas. He was elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966. A graduate of Syracuse, his coaching career included stops at Oklahoma City University (13-5-3, 1926-27), as assistant at Kansas in 1928, at Oklahoma A&M (34-10-7, 1929-33), Kansas State (7-2-1, 1934), Northwestern (49-45-7, 1935-46) and California (67-32-4, 1947-56).

Established in 2002, the K-State Football Ring of Honor was developed to recognize those who have distinguished themselves on and off the football field at the highest level. The inaugural class in 2002 consisted of six players, while four more were induced in both 2008 and 2015. The exclusive 14-member fraternity have their names displayed on the east side upper deck and on a unique ring display in the West Stadium Center concourse.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

HALE LIBRARY

STUDENT UNION

K-State is working to become a Top 50 public research university by 2025. To accomplish this, K-State is ramping up its total research and development expenditures, total endowment, and the number of undergraduate students involved in research, among other goals. The university is well on its way; check out the progress at k-state.edu/2025.

History and Location

K-State was established in 1863 as the nation's first operational land-grant university. As such, the university's mission has always been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act: to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond. K-State is governed by the Kansas Board of Regents.

Located in central Manhattan, the main campus encompasses more than 2,320 acres, including agricultural and research facilities. The campus is known for its historic limestone buildings. This classic college town of more than 56,000 residents is growing steadily, attracting local and national businesses.

Manhattan is 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hills of northeast Kansas. The university also has a campus an hour west in Salina, Kansas State Polytechnic, which is known for its educational focus on experiential learning and its renowned unmanned aircraft systems programs, offering bachelor's and associate degrees and one master's degree.

K-State's newest campus in Olathe, a part of the Kansas City metro area, now offers a bachelor's degree completion program in hospitality management. Additionally, the campus offers several master's and doctoral degrees for professionals seeking career advancement in a variety of science-based fields.

K-State Global Campus, home to 90-plus online and distance programs offered through K-State Online, puts the power of a K-State education at one's fingertips. Professional development workshops and enrichment programs are also offered through this campus.

In addition, K-State Research and Extension offers numerous extension fields, offices and other facilities in every county in Kansas as well as Nebraska.

K-State is host to the prestigious Landon Lecture Series, honoring the late Kansas statesman Alfred M. Landon. Since 1966, the series has featured more than 175 nationally prominent speakers. Past speakers have included U.S. presidents, world leaders, Supreme Court justices, CEOs and other prominent figures.

Student Achievement

K-State students have an outstanding record when it comes to winning national competitions. K-Staters have placed in the top five in areas like robotics, debate, forensics, aviation, construction science, architecture, engineering, leadership and more. The K-State Black Student Union has been named the top group in the Big 12 12 times in the last 15 years.

ACADEMIC RECOGNITION

- A recent Wall Street Journal study found that K-State is one of the best schools in the nation for increasing students' critical thinking, reasoning and problem-solving skills.
- The Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities designated K-State as an Innovation and Economic Prosperity University.
- The College of Business Administration's sales program is one of the best in the nation, according to the Sales Education Foundation. Additionally, the college was ranked among the best undergraduate business schools in the nation by Bloomberg Businessweek.
- The university was named one of the best colleges in the nation for agriculture by Schools.com. Additionally, Newsweek named the College of Education one of the nation's Great Teaching Schools.
- The graduate-level landscape architecture and interior architecture programs offered by the College of Architecture, Planning & Design are rated among the Top 10 in the nation in a survey by DesignIntelligence.
- K-State is No. 1 in competitive scholarships for state-supported colleges from 1986-2017, as well as the only state-supported university to rank among the Top 10 of all U.S. schools for the combined number of scholars in Rhodes, Marshall, Truman, Goldwater and Udall competitions since 1987.
- Prestigious scholarships won by K-Staters in the 2018-2019 school year include Truman, Goldwater, Fulbright, Gilman and Cargill Global scholarships.
- K-State has an 86% freshman-to-sophomore retention — the highest in university history.

University Research and Accolades

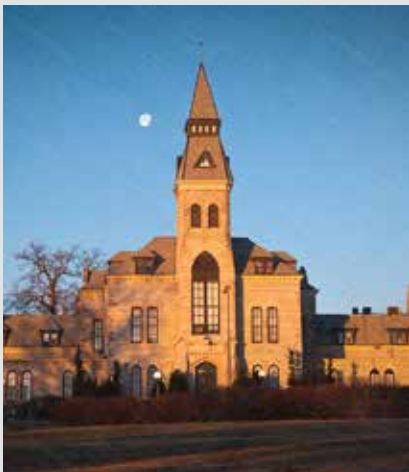

- Kansas State University was named the “Silicon Valley for biodefense” for its status as a national leader in animal health, biosciences and food safety research. K-State is home to premier research facilities such as the Biosecurity Research Institute and College of Veterinary Medicine complex. In addition, the Kansas Department of Agriculture offices are co-located at the university’s research park; and the National Bio and Agro-defense Facility is being constructed adjacent to the Manhattan campus.
- K-State’s “highest research activity” classification is the highest level possible from the Carnegie Classifications of Institutions of Higher Education. The Carnegie Foundation named Kansas State University as one of 119 U.S. colleges and universities to receive the 2020 Carnegie Community Engagement Classification for the university’s commitment to community engagement. K-State is one of 75 institutions to be reclassified by the Carnegie Foundation this year.

BUILDING THE FUTURE

- The new Morris Family Multicultural Student Center is being constructed on campus and will include space for gathering, performances, group spaces and other support spaces.
- The multiphased renovation of Hale Library continues, with several enhancements to entrances and first-floor spaces completed, along with a new learning commons. Phase two of construction is under way, and starting July 1, the second floor of Hale Library will be open to visitors.
- Seaton Hall recently underwent a $75 million transformation, renovating 80,000 square feet and adding 114,000 square feet of new construction, including Regnier Hall.
- Wefald Hall, a residence hall on the west side of campus, opened in fall 2016 housing 540 students. The connecting dining center serves 1,850 students.
- The 150,000-square-foot Business Building opened in fall 2016 featuring classroom space, financial trading rooms and areas for entrepreneurial development.
- A $40 million expansion added Engineering Hall to the engineering complex, which already includes Durland, Fielder and Rathbone halls.
- The Berney Family Welcome Center at WWI Memorial Stadium centralizes services for incoming students, serves as a campus gateway, and features interactive technology and customized information for visitors.

- K-State is home to more than 90 centers and institutes that produce groundbreaking research. This includes four Feed the Future Innovation Labs funded by the U.S. Agency for International Development.
- More than $42 million in scholarships is awarded to students each year.
- K-State is the No. 1 choice for Kansas high school seniors, and it pays dividends. Ninety-six percent of recent bachelor’s degree graduates indicated they were employed or continuing education.

Richard B. Myers was named the 14th president of Kansas State University in November 2016 by the Kansas Board of Regents. Myers' appointment came after serving as interim university president since April 2016.

A 1965 K-State graduate with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering, Myers joined the Air Force through the university's Air Force ROTC program.

From 2001-2005, he was the 15th chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. As chairman, Myers was the highest-ranking uniformed officer of U.S. military forces and served as the principal military adviser to the president, secretary of defense and the National Security Council. The native Kansan from Merriam retired as a four-star general.

As a command pilot, Myers logged more than 4,100 flying hours, including 600 combat hours. His largest commands included U.S. Forces Japan and 5th Air Force at Yokota Air Base, Japan; Pacific Air Forces at Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii; and the North American Aerospace Defense Command, U.S. Space Command and Air Force Space Command at Peterson Air Force Base in Colorado. He has received numerous awards and decorations for his service, including the Legion of Merit, French Legion of Honor, Presidential Medal of Freedom and the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Air Force Association.

Myers serves as the Kansas State University Foundation professor of military history and leadership. He received a Master of Business Administration from Auburn University in 1977.

He also graduated from Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell Air Force Base in 1977, U.S. Army War College at Carlisle Barracks in 1981, and the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, where he completed a program for Senior Executives in National and International Security in 1991.

Throughout Myers' active duty and world travels, he continued relationships with his friends back home. He has provided instruction, insight and inspiration to current students and the K-State community. In 2000, he presented the 118th Landon Lecture at Kansas State University, speaking about the military's role in international relations. K-State named the military science building, home of the Army ROTC and Air Force ROTC programs, Gen. Richard B. Myers Hall in honor of his service and dedication.

A member of the Kansas State University Foundation Board of Trustees, Myers is married to Mary Jo, who is a K-State alumna.

Gene Taylor was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017, and in three years under his leadership, the Wildcats have recorded championship performances on the field and in the classroom, in addition to continued fundraising success and immediately improving the facility infrastructure to enhance the experience of all Wildcat student-athletes.

Taylor, who in June 2020 was named the eighth-best Athletic Director among FBS programs by Stadium, has seen the women's track and field team win back-to-back Big 12 Outdoor championships, the football program make a pair of bowl appearances, and the men's basketball team win a Big 12 Championship and earn an Elite 8 appearance. Additionally, Taylor and staff fundraised and have begun to implement a department-wide facility master plan that will benefit all Wildcat teams.

Taylor's strategic plan for the department places an emphasis on the student-athlete experience, while his leadership in navigating the COVID-19 crisis, in addition to enhancing the department's already-strong diversity and inclusion program, has been well documented. Most recently, Taylor and his leadership team grew K-State Athletics' diversity and inclusion program with the implementation of 10 new action items to begin in the 2020-21 season.

On the coaching front, Taylor hired Chris Klieman to replace hall of fame coach Bill Snyder after winning four national titles in five seasons at North Dakota State, and in his first season went 8-5 which included a win over No. 5 Oklahoma and a Liberty Bowl appearance against Navy. Taylor has also hired Jordan Smith to take over the tennis program and Pete Hughes in baseball, who took the Wildcats back to the Big 12 Championship in his first year on the job.

Graduating student-athletes remains the top priority for the department and academic success has continued under Taylor's guidance as K-State continues to rank among the top schools in the Big 12 in APR and graduation success rate.

Taylor's first year in the Little Apple was met with championship performances in addition to finalizing a senior leadership team, meeting K-Staters from all over the country, continued fundraising success and immediately continuing to improve facilities for all programs and student-athletes. In 2017-18, K-State won a Big 12 Outdoor Women's Track and Field championship, recorded a bowl win over UCLA and had an Elite 8 appearance from the men's basketball team, while Taylor and staff fundraised and announced plans for a new $15 million Baseball and Soccer Facility that is currently under construction.

In addition to achieving a budget surplus for the ninth, 10th and 11th straight years, the department also saw fans and donors contributing $44.4 million in total giving in FY 2019, which is the second-largest figure in department history and marked only the second time ever to eclipse the $40 million mark, while $18.3 million was designated for the department's annual fund. Fans also contributed in FY 2018 a total of $30.9 million, of which a record $18.9 million was designated for the Ahearn Fund annual giving program surpassing its budgeted goal.

As Athletics Director at North Dakota State, Taylor immediately spearheaded a comprehensive evaluation of the Bison athletic department in 2001, all while successfully guiding the athletics program through the unpredictable waters of reclassification to NCAA Division I from Division II and securing conference affiliations for all 16 sports. The Bison are currently members of The Summit League, Missouri Valley Football Conference and the Big 12 Conference (wrestling).

Taylor also played an instrumental part of forming the Great West Football Conference in February 2004, an affiliation that gave the Bison football program an immediate home in Division I.

The success of the football program is well documented, highlighted by three-straight FCS National Championships in 2011, 2012 and 2013 under head coach Craig Bohl as the Bison quickly became one of the most revered football programs in all levels of college sports.

In addition to football, the NDSU men's basketball, women's volleyball, softball and women's golf programs all regularly qualified for NCAA tournaments, highlighted by softball advancing to the 2009 Super Regional, while the Bison totaled 53 Summit League team championships since 2009 under Taylor's guidance in addition to 62 Academic All-Americans, three NCAA Woman of the Year national qualifiers, four NCAA Elite 89 selections and 20 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners.

The NDSU athletics budget tripled from $5 million in Taylor's first year to $15 million, while the scholarship endowment grew to $11.2 million, and Team Makers booster club support tripled from $750,000 to $2.8 million.

In 2014, Taylor accepted the role of deputy athletics director at Iowa where he has been responsible for the administrative oversight of the department's day-to-day operations while also serving as the leading advisor to the Director of Athletics and the primary decision maker in his absence.

He also supervised and managed all the department's administrative units, capital projects as well as serving as the direct sport supervisor for field hockey, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's swimming and diving, women's soccer, baseball and wrestling. Taylor also had oversight of the football and men's and women's basketball programs daily operations, which included postseason and bowl travel coordination.

Twice Taylor has been recognized for his success by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. He was selected as the FCS Central Region AD of the Year in June 2008 and June 2012. Taylor received the Blue Key Honor Society Doctor of Service Award, one of the most prestigious honors an NDSU faculty member can be bestowed, in April 2012.

A student assistant to the associate athletics director in his undergraduate days at Arizona State University, Taylor arrived at NDSU after a 15-year stint at Navy (1986-2001) as an administrative assistant, assistant ticket manager, ticket manager, assistant athletic director for tickets and operations, and associate athletic director.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida.

He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have one daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared.

DEV NELSON PRESS LEVEL

Welcome to K-State! Thank you for your interest in Kansas State football. The K-State Athletics Communications Office has produced the 2020 media guide to assist in your coverage of the Wildcats. Please feel free to contact any member of our staff with questions, requests or concerns. We look forward to working with you throughout the season.

COVERING K-STATE

Weekly News Conference

K-State will host a weekly Zoom press conferences with head coach Chris Klieman and select players each Tuesday during the 2020 season. Klieman will address the media for 20 minutes beginning at 12 p.m., with four select players available for 10-minute increments from 12:20 to p.m. 1 p.m. To request players for the weekly news conference, media should contact Assistant AD for Communications Ryan Lackey (rlackey@kstatesports.com) each Monday by noon. Quotes from the news conference are available on www.k-statesports.com each Tuesday afternoon. Weekly press conference links will be sent out on Monday, and plans are subject to change.

News Conference Video

A recorded version of the Zoom press conference will be available for download on Tuesday afternoons. Contact the K-State Athletics Communications for FTP access instructions.

Other Availability

Chris Klieman: In addition to K-State's Tuesday news conference, head coach Chris Klieman is available to the media each Monday morning on the Big 12 Conference's weekly teleconference. Coach Klieman is also available via telephone for out-of-town media outlets, but those times and opportunities may vary. Please contact Kenny Lannou (klannou@kstatesports.com) for those opportunities.

Assistant Coaches: K-State will host weekly Zoom media gatherings with coordinators each Thursday from 2 p.m. to 2:20 p.m. At the time of publication, opportunities for other assistant coaches are not available.

Players: All player interviews MUST be arranged through the K-State Athletics Communications Office. During the season, Wildcat players are available to the media via the Zoom Tuesday news conferences.

GAMEDAY INFO

Working Credentials

K-State will issue media credentials on an individual game basis with no more than two (2) credentials allowed per media outlet. In an effort to social distance during the COVID-19 pandemic, a limited amount of press box seats will be available, and seats will be at least six feet apart. Those wishing to request for credentials must do so through the K-State Athletics Communications football credential application website. To access the website, please visit www.k-statesports.com/media.

Please be advised of the department's updated credential policies on page 221 as it relates to COVID-19. Applying for credentials does not guarantee credentials will be approved. Additionally, being approved for credentials in previous seasons does not guarantee credentials will be approved in 2020.

Credentials will not be mailed in any circumstance. Parking passes for those who are approved will be sent the week prior to game week. Credential pickup will be available at a location to be determined, and that will be announced by Thursday prior to the game.

When picking up credentials, media will be asked to furnish a photo ID and will have to complete a successful temperature check prior to being issued their credential.

Masks will be required at both credential pickup and at any point inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium to comply with state of Kansas, Riley County and University orders.

Press Parking

Press parking is limited and will be issued upon request on a first-come, first-served basis as available. Contact the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office regarding details and directions to press parking areas.

Photographers

At the time of publication, the Big 12 directive is to allow only four "pool" photographers on the field in separate quadrants spanning from the end of the team bench area to behind the goal post. K-State will determine during the week of the game which photographers will be granted access to the field in exchange for the willingness to share photos with other media outlets in an arrangement made by the K-State Athletics Communications office.

The four "pool" photographers must obtain and wear a K-State Athletics vest (available in the press box on gamedays) and a media pass to shoot inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Inside each quadrant, photographers are to stay behind the white dotted line on the field with priority given to individuals operating cameras and parabolic microphones for the television network broadcasting the game.

The only designated photographer work space available is available on the Dev Nelson Press Level.

ENG crews and videographers (aside from participating institutional videographers) will not be permitted on the field but would be able to access game footage by either recording the network broadcast at their station or from a 3-5 minute melt of highlights provided on K-State's FTP site.

Visiting Radio Stations

To inquire about access to Kansas State's existing radio courtesy lines, visiting radio stations should contact Ben Boyle, K-State Sports Network General Manager, at 785.532.2702. Only those stations recognized as the official originator for the visiting team will be afforded broadcast facilities. For national networks, a rights fee is charged. National networks are also required to protect the broadcast footprint of the K-State Sports Network. Broadcast facilities for national networks are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Websites

K-State reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with an official news-gathering organization or publication. Credentials will be issued to official online services of national, over-the-air or cable networks or established publications which are staffed by full-time employees whose primary function is to produce content from the game.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling.

Membership in a writer's association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials.

Road Credentials

Obtaining media credentials for K-State road games is the sole responsibility of each media outlet. Credentials are granted at the discretion of the host institution with a minimum of 15% of the 2020 press box capacity reserved for visiting media. Please be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Opponent SID email addresses are listed on pages 44-45.

MEDIA SERVICES

Weekly Release

The K-State Athletics Communications Office provides its weekly football release via email. Updated notes and statistics are posted on www.k-statesports.com Monday morning in both text and PDF formats. To receive K-State's weekly notes package via email, please contact Ryan Lackey (rlackey@kstatesports.com).

Gameweek Working Space

Due to virtual press conferences being conducted during the 2020 season, K-State will not be able to provide work space for media outlets in the Athletics Communications Office except for on gameday.

Dev Nelson Press Level

The Dev Nelson Press Level includes a working area for print media, home and visiting radio networks, home and visiting coaches' booths, opposing athletics director booth, TV booth, radio spots, coaches' video and a photo deck.

Press Box Services

Pregame notes and flipcards will be available at each individual seat. For extra copies, please contact a member of the K-State Athletics Communications Office. Additionally, quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play, postgame notes and postgame quotes from coaches and players of both teams will be emailed out to the entire media list, and no printed copies will be available. Final statistics, notes and quotes will be posted on the official K-State Athletics website shortly after the conclusion of each contest.

Live running statistics are also available on TVs throughout the press box and on the Internet at kstate.statbroadcast.com during the game.

Internet Access

The Dev Nelson Press Level is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Please contact a member of the K-State Athletics Communications Office for access and usage instructions. Wireless internet credentials are for media only and are not to be distributed to the general public.

Postgame Policy

Kansas State's locker room is closed and there will be no in-person press conferences/interviews following the game both home and on the road. K-State will host Zoom press conferences with head coach Chris Klieman and select players, and that link will be emailed to the media prior to the conclusion of the game.

Media in the press box will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Ryan Lackey with five minutes remaining in the third quarter.

Postgame news conferences for visiting teams will also take place via Zoom. Please contact the visiting communications director for access.

Postgame Highlights

The Kansas State Athletics Department produces broadcast-quality files of highlights for use in newscasts following all non-televised home games. Please contact the K-State Athletics Communications Office or K-StateHD.TV staff for FTP access instructions and information.

Media Meals

A pregame boxed lunch will be available for pickup on the Dev Nelson Press Level two hours prior to each game. The meal is reserved for working members of the media with proper credentials.

2020 BIG 12 MEDIA TELECONFERENCE

The Big 12 Conference hosts individual media teleconferences with each Big 12 head coach throughout each football season. The briefings are conducted between 9:50 a.m. and 11:30 a.m., each Monday, and are available to local and national media outlets. To participate in the teleconference, please contact Joni Lehmann in the Big 12 Communications Office at 469.524.1000 for details on how to join the weekly call.

The weekly call-in schedule for 2020 season is as follows:
 9:50 a.m. — Tom Herman, Texas
 10:00 a.m. — Les Miles, Kansas
 10:10 a.m. — Lincoln Riley, Oklahoma
 10:20 a.m. — Mike Gundy, Oklahoma State
10:30 A.M. — CHRIS KLIEMAN, KANSAS STATE
 10:40 a.m. — Neal Brown, West Virginia
 10:50 a.m. — Matt Wells, Texas Tech
 11:00 a.m. — Dave Aranda, Baylor
 11:10 a.m. — Matt Campbell, Iowa State
 11:20 a.m. — Gary Patterson, TCU

K-STATE CREDENTIAL POLICY

The below credential policy is based off recommendations from the Riley County Health Department to help mitigate the spread of COVID-19. The policy below is as of August 17, 2020 and is subject to change. K-State Athletics reserves the right to change the credential policy without notice.

An inherent risk of exposure to COVID-19 exists in any public place where people are present. COVID-19 is an extremely contagious disease that can lead to severe illness and death. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, senior citizens and those with underlying medical conditions are especially vulnerable. By attending any KSU events in any venue, credential holders voluntarily assume all risks related to exposure to COVID-19 and agree to abide by the foregoing conditions.

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the K-State Athletics Communications Office based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. K-State will issue single-game credentials to all media with top priority given to those who have covered K-State on a daily basis in the past two (2) seasons. Each organization will be allowed a maximum of two (2) press box seats.
3. Per Big 12 guidelines, a minimum of 15% of the press box seasons in 2020 will be reserved for visiting media at the discretion of the visiting team's media relations department. If those are not full, K-State will allow more of its media to attend until seating is maximized.
4. NFL scouts will only be allowed as space is available.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

1. Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.
2. Kansas State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of organizations that regularly publish gambling information, such as "tout" or "tip" sheets.
3. Kansas State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not recognized as a legitimate media organization.
4. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.

WYATT THOMPSON

Voice of the Wildcats

A five-time Kansas Sportscaster of the Year — including each of the last three years — and 2011 recipient of the Hod Hummiston Award, play-by-play announcer Wyatt Thompson serves as the anchor of the K-State Sports Network and returns for his 19th season behind the mic as “Voice of the Wildcats.”

K-State’s Senior Director of Sportscasting, Thompson also serves as host of the Chris Klieman and Bruce Weber shows on both television and radio. In addition, he is heavily involved in various Catbacker Club, alumni and athletic department functions, frequently serving as a keynote speaker.

Thompson came to K-State from Colorado State, where he was the play-by-play voice for the Rams’ football and men’s basketball teams for five years. An accomplished broadcaster, he won the Colorado Broadcasting Association award for best play-by-play in 2000. In addition to his duties at CSU, he was also a sports reporter for Clear Channel Denver, the “Countdown to Kickoff” host for the Denver Broncos on KOA Radio and hosted the “Zone Sports Insiders” show on 760 The Zone in Denver.

Thompson started his broadcasting career in 1976 as a sportscaster for various high schools, colleges and universities in Kansas, spending time at stations in Hays and Goodland. He was recognized with the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Play-by-Play Award in 1982 and the Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1989. He and his wife Karen reside in Manhattan.

STAN WEBER

Analyst

Providing the color analysis is former Kansas State quarterback Stan Weber. Now in his 34th year in the booth and having called 405-consecutive games entering 2020, Weber passed legendary broadcaster Dev Nelson, who called games for 25 years, for the longest tenure of a K-State radio broadcaster.

In addition to these duties, Weber provides color commentary for men’s basketball games on the K-State Sports Network as well as Big 12 Now on ESPN+ broadcasts.

A native of Goddard, Kansas, he served as captain of the 1984 team and led the Wildcats in rushing while earning Academic All-American honors.

Weber, who graduated magna cum laude, received his bachelor’s and master’s degrees in accountancy from Kansas State and currently serves as President of Tower Properties in addition to his broadcast duties. Weber was also a 2009 inductee into the K-State Accounting Hall of Fame, a 2014 inductee into the Kansas Shrine Bowl Hall of Fame, and a 2019 inductee into the Goddard Public Schools Hall of Fame.

Weber and his wife, Nancy (Freshnack), a former K-State cheerleader, have four children — Brittani, Stanton, McKenzi and Landry. Stanton played five years on the K-State football team and served as the 2015 special teams captain, while he is currently the Special Teams Analyst at K-State. Landry is a junior wide receiver for the Wildcats, and McKenzie finished her career with the K-State volleyball team in 2019. The Webers reside in Lenexa, Kansas.

MATT WALTERS

Sideline Reporter, Pregame and Postgame Host

Matt Walters is in his 16th year as the Wildcats’ sideline reporter and host of the network’s pre- and postgame show. The 2013 Kansas Sportscaster of the Year is also a 26-year veteran of K-State baseball broadcasts, while he also previously hosted the popular ‘Powercat Gameday’ football pregame show for 20 years on KMAN and KMKF. Walters also serves as an analyst for a portion of the men’s basketball broadcasts on the K-State Sports Network as well as some play-by-play duties for women’s basketball.

A 1992 graduate of Kansas State and native of Russell, Kansas, Walters spent 20 years at Manhattan Broadcasting before going to work for Manhattan’s Commerce Bank in 2014 as a Vice President/Commercial Product Specialist.

In addition to being named the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) in 2013, Walters also received the prestigious Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year in 2005. He and his wife, Janelle, live near St. George.

K-STATE SPORTS NETWORK

Wildcat football is on the air! The 2020 football season marks the 16th year of the K-State Sports Network, a joint venture of Kansas State Athletics and Learfield IMG College.
